5th Battalion Standing Orders

1. Any Volunteer found guilty of undermining the Staff, will be dealt with severely.
2. Anyone found guilty of Loose Talk will be dealt with accordingly.
3. Smuggling of letters (in or out) will not be tolerated, unless permission is granted beforehand by the Staff.
4. Any Volunteer applying for Compassionate Parole, must get permission from the Batt. Staff, (if permission is granted and she wishes an extension, she must work through Sinn Féin outside).
5. All statements going to the papers must go through the Batt. R.R.O. via Company P.R.O.
6. On the day of the funeral of a Volunteer, all radios, T.V's, record players and recreation will be suspended for that day (except for News) until after the funeral. There will be Commemoration Parades on the first Sunday after the burial of a Vol. Full dress on this Sunday to be worn to Mass.
7. News, Irish Political and National Music Programmes will have first preference on Radios and T.V's.
8. Aggro with Screws or Loyalists will not be tolerated (if a Volunteer has a complaint against either of these parties, she is to report it to her Company staff immediately).
9. All Volunteers must have cells cleaned out by 10.00 a.m.
10. All Volunteers reporting sick must remain in bed until the following morning.
11. There is to be no noise after twelve midnight.
12. Anyone wishing to see the Welfare must have prior permission from Company O.C. Any Welfare matter the O.C. deals with will be kept in strict confidence.
13. All Volunteers must be ready on the day of their visits. This is to ensure that our Visitors are not kept waiting.
14. No property within the Company is to be damaged or destroyed and all Company notice are to be obeyed.
15. All Volunteers must be locked in cells ten minutes after the meals are brought onto the wing to enable the checks to be made. All Volunteers must be locked up at night at the time decided by O.C. and Staff of Company Prison.
16. All Volunteers must make the best possible use of Educational facilities in Gaol. This is to ensure that Volunteers do not waste their time.
17. All Volunteers must duly elect their O.C. twice a year in the months of January and July. Company Staff must also be elected.
18. It must be stressed that P.D.F. work is an important aspect of working for the Republican Movement. By helping the Green Cross Volunteers in Prison will be helping the families of prisoners who might otherwise be in need.
19. Drill is an important part of discipline in the gaol but the times and regularity of drill will be left to the discretion of the T.O. and Staff of the gaol. Anyone with a genuine complaint or reason as to why they should not partake in drill can obtain permission to absent themselves from the O.C.
20. Staff Meetings will be held once a month unless there is an emergency.

Political Status was fought for and won by brave men and women. It is up to us to show by our behaviour that we are worthy to be called Political Prisoners. We can best do this by showing respect to our Officers in the Company who are doing their best to see that everything runs smoothly and fairly within the Gaol.

If you have any complaints they will be listened to and acted upon - see your Branch O.C. or Adjutant.

Invisible Women

The singer sings a rebel song and everybody sings along.
Just one thing I'll never understand:
Every damn rebel seems to be a man.

For he sings of the Bold Fenian Men
And the Boys of the Old Brigade.
What about the women who stood there too
"When history was made"?

Ireland, Mother Ireland, with your freedom-loving sons,
Did your daughters run and hide at the sound of guns?
Or did they have some part in the fight
And why does everybody try to keep them out of sight?

For they sing of the Men of the West
And the Boys of Wexford too.
Were there no women living round those parts;
Tell me, what did they do?

Brian Moore
