IVAN BARR

YOUR NO. 1 CANDIDATE

• Ivan Barr is 47-years-of-age and is married with seven children. A painter by trade he has held various secretary positions of local branches of the Amalgamated Society of Painters and Decorators, and of the National Federation of Building Operatives.

A member of Sinn Féin in Britain in the 1950s he returned to his native Strabane and was a prominent activist in the Civil Rights Association.

Ivan Barr says:

"A strong Sinn Féin team returned to Strabane District Council will guarantee that the political aspirations of the nationalist people will be properly represented in the debating chamber. Sinn Féin elected representatives have already established a track record second-to-none for opposing British repression and the harassment of people by the sectarian RUC and UDR.

"Both inside and outside the council we will represent constituents in their everyday social and economic problems, be they with the Housing Executive, the DHSS or the DoE.

"Sinn Féin totally supports the public demands for a by-pass to relieve traffic congestion in Strabane. We will use the chamber platform to publicly hold bodies like the Executive to account for their poor record on repairs and the Social Services for their cutbacks on homehelp hours, etc.

"Sinn Féin will call upon the council to examine ways in which existing ACE schemes can be improved and exploited both to relieve unemployment and to really benefit the community through a wide variety of schemes".
