And now I speak, being full of vision;
 I speak to my people, and I speak in my people's name to the masters of my people.
 I say to my people that they are holy, that they are august, despite their chains, That they are greater than those that hold them, and stronger and purer,
 That they have but need of courage, and to call on the name of their God, God the unforgetting, the dear God that loves the peoples
 For whom He died naked, suffering shame.
 And I say to my people's masters: Beware, Beware of the thing that is coming, beware of the risen people, Who shall take what ye would not give. Did ye think to conquer the people, Or that Law is stronger than life and than men's desire to be free?
 We will try it out with you, ye that have harried and held,
 Ye that have bullied and bribed, tyrants, hypocrites, liars!
