

Armagh Prison, N. Ireland

The Parents and Relatives of 44 Irish Catholic Girls, imprisoned for their political beliefs in Armagh Prison, wish to inform the public that their daughters are being on Sundays by a practice of degrading intimate body search before Mass which they are unwilling to undergo and which WE THE PARENTS do not wish them to undergo.

PREVENTED FROM GOING TO MASS

This has gone on for four months and we request the world's press, the Catholic hierarchy and Amnesty International to take action about this denial of religious freedom.

Human Rights for Ireland