POLITICAL STATUS FOR IRISH PRISONERS

The prisoners in the H Blocks of Long Kesh are following a long and powerful tradition of prison struggle. Starting with the Fenians over 100 years ago, hunger strikes and other forms of non-compliance have been used to fight for recognition as political prisoners. And from 12 December 1976 to the present, the British and the South Irish State in the 1970s, have treated us these prisoners with genuine respect.

PRISONERS OF WAR AREN'T CRIMINALS

The prisoners are demanding -

- 1 The right of prisoners to wear their own clothes instead of prison uniform
- 2 The right of free association with other prisoners
- 3 The right to refuse to do prison work
- 4 The right to organise educational and recreational activities, and to send and receive a weekly letter, a weekly parcel and a visit
- 5 Restoration of full remission of sentence
