

NOEL LEMASS

with an unsurpassable record of

IRISH VALOUR

has been brutally murdered by agents of the "Free" State.

The mangled body of this Republican Patriot has been found on the lonely hillside in such a shocking condition as goes to prove that the victim was, before death, subjected to diabolical torture.

Why was Noel Lemass murdered? Because he refused to violate his oath of allegiance to the Irish Republic. Because he refused to "be faithful to King George of England." Because he refused his support to the "Free" State Government, and thus helped to prevent Ireland from becoming a mockery in the eyes of the other nations. That is why Noel Lemass has been tortured to death.
