

Police

Gazette,

OR

HUE-AND-CRY.

Published for Ireland on every Tuesday and Friday.

All Notices intended for insertion in the Hue-and-Cry, are to be transmitted under cover addressed to the Inspector-General of Constabulary (the words Hue-and-Cry to be written on the left hand corner of the Envelope). No Description can be inserted unless an Information shall have been Sworn; but it is not necessary to forward the Informations to the Inspector-General.
As the Law (48 Geo. 3, c. 140, s. 44.) only permits the insertion of Notices respecting Felonies, no other description of Notice can be inserted in the Hue-and-Cry.
