"A Íosa, oscail do Chroi naofa dhóibh, achainimid ort, chun go mbeadh sé acu mar áras cónuithé agus mar ionad tearmanna"

All members of the I.R.A. operating in Britain belonged to the Army of the Republic and received their orders from G.H.Q., Dublin. When the order for the execution of an enemy of Ireland arrived both of these brave men volunteered to carry it out. This they did most successfully at very short notice, At their subsequent trial both men defiantly stated their attitudes.

Reg Dunne: "I trust that the Higher Court will consider the purity of my intentions."

O'Sullivan: "All I have done I have done for Ireland and for Ireland I am proud to die".

Re-interred in Dean's Grange Cemetery, 8th July, 1967
by arrangement with the National Graves Association.
