PORCELAIN ENAMELLED BATHS CISTERNS. PLUMBING WORK. Gleeson, O'Dea & Co.

Limited-21 & 22 CHRISTCHURCH PLACE, II DUBLIN. Telephone: Dublin 281.

Éire Óz

Moore & McCormack Line NEW YORK & CORK DUBLIN & BELFAST

Reduce freight accesses and mini-mins transit losses by availing of this route. For particulars of roses and particulars of roses and Dowdall and Co., 15 Green Parade, Cork, 164, 57 Green Parade, Cork, 164, 57 Green Chambers, Dublin. Burks, John, and Soms, P'Otiar Chambers, Dublin. Burks, John, and Soms, 15 to 17 Corporation Street, Switzet.

Vol. 5. No. 33. [New Series (a).].

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1920.

PRICE THREEPENCE.

Current Comments

The following malbious lie was published in the London "Daily Mail" on Tugeday last:—The 'Daily Mail' learns that, following the Government's definite refusal on Friday to release the Lord Mayor of Cork, Alderman Teence Masswiney, at present on his 26th day of hunger-strike in Brixton Jail, his friends in London addressed an urgent position to the 'Republican' Government in Ireland asking that Alderman Masswiney, be released from his oath and prymission given him to take lood.

bod.

While Lord Northcliffe has been bouldy professing his desire for the Lord Mayor of Cork's release, his baily Mail "publishes this mean he about a dying man—a lie calculated to cause him additional pain and discuss his relatives. Similarly when the Lord Mayor of Cork's predecessor was murdered, the "Daily Mail" was used to divress his relatives by publishing the infamous statement that Lord Mayor MacCurri. Ferhaps Lord Northcliffe will investigate the coincidence. If so, he will discover, we opine, the sources to be one.

On Friday last the London "Morganize Uest"—the organ of Dyerism and Dublin Castle—published a statement that the bulk of the R.I.C. had threatened to resign if the Lord Mayor of Pork and the notificing automatical transfer of the R.I.C. had the statement to reside the same of the s

the R.I.C. to say that that statement be recipied with the statement of the R.I.C. to say that the statements obout Ireland that appear in the newspaper mentioned—was a cowardly falsehood. Members of the R.I.C. have written to the Irish press repudiating it, and the Unionist Dublin Evening Mail "worde on Monday evening that the R.I.C. both at the Depot and elsewhere denied and strongly resented it. The persons who process and the newspapers who process and the newspapers who process and the newspapers who process and invation for the force they thus librated. The people of Ireland understand fully that it is not the members of the R.I.C. who are responsible for the decision to do the Lord Mayor of Cork to death.

Christensen, the U.S. Presidal candidate of the Labourers' Farmers' Party, is reported to sent the following cable to Mr. yd George

You have appalled the world by your callous indifference to the death throes of the heroic Lord Mayor of Cork.

"The slayers of Joan of Arc had oxenses such as yours; so, too, the executioners of Robert Emmet, and the hangman of Nathan Hale.

If the Lloyd George Government is not tyrannical, prove if by freeing Terence MacSwiney and withdrawing your army of occupation from the soil of the Irish Republic."

The following is a translation of a telegram sent last week by Sean T. O'Ceallaigh, T.D., to Signor Giolitti, the Italian Premier:—

be Italian Premier:

"Your Excellency—I take the liberty of calling your attention to a matter about which it would seem impossible that you, your Government, and the Italian people can romain indifferent. I refer to the case of the Lord Mayor of Cork, who at this moment is suffering death in an English prison for his patriotic principles.

"I beseech you to add your government and people to the voices of the whole civilised world, who, in the name of humanity, demands that this nam be saved.

"The only crime of which Terence MacSwings, Lord Mayor of Cork, is guilty is that he loves his country,

her independence, and the recognition of the Republic.

e people of Ireland and their lie and Government will be liv grateful if your Exceltage prompt action in view fact that the Lord Mayor is point of death.

SPAN T. O'CEALLAND.
"Delegate at Rome of Irish Republic" T. O'CEALLAIGH, the Irish Republic."

10. A langlish correspondent of "Il P. A. Dish a Italia, a Milanese journal, has been making statements on the "Une question," which have been ably ratated by Mr. D. M. Hales. The Implication of the Conference of the Conference. He commences by stating that there are in Ireland two parties nearly equal in numbers. This, of course, is easily disposed of by quoting the figures of the various elections which have been held, and which have been held, and which have been held, and which prove that sour-littles of the people are on one side.

The second statement is that Ulster the richest province in Ireland. In stress of valuation and taxation are noted to show that Leinster is the

The hird statement is that Ireland, to herself, would be the victim of issue as and episodes of civil war ich yand horrify the whole world. occupation withdrawn, would put her own house in order. It does not need the acute intelligence of the Italian race to perceive that "massacres and episades of civil war "occur under the inspiration and active instiguation of the foreign agents, and that the policy of an invader must be to sir up strife amongst the inhabitants. The inhabitants of Milan, the people of Lombardy know better even than most Italians what foreign occupation means. It is as fulle to argue in favour of English rule in Ireland as it would be to argue in favour of English rule in Ireland as it would be to Austrian rule in Lombardy.

hardy.

No nation has been the prey of disunion and dissension to the same extent as Italy. The numerous divisions which formerly existed enabled invaders to seize the country piece-meal.
Now, nobody knows better than the Italian that the unity of his country is the best guarantee of its indopendence, and that any proposal to divide bis country into separate states could only come from those who wanted to weaken and perhaps subjugate his country again. Invaders have never promoted unit, monget their subject peoples and they never will. To divide and govern is their motto, the old Roman motto of "Divide et Impers."
Partition is their principle.

Roman moto of "Divide es Impera. Partition is their principle.

"La Liguria del Popolo" of Genoa contains a copy of the correspondence to which we have alluded. This journal, publishing the reply on the subject of Ulster (La difficulta dell Ulster), refers to "our distinguished friend and collaborator, and friend and collaborator. M. Hales, Consular Agent in Genoa for Irish Commerce." The incident is important, as it shows how much English propaganda read to the bedfast. The trainans will be further cellightened by the burnings and shootings which have been massacres and the proofs of these massacres and the proofs of civil war" which have occurred theer security in the presence of the same of cocupation.

English propaganda in Italy and the English propaganda in Italy and the countries abroad strives to impress on foreign public opinion that the wealth of Ireland is in Ulster. The truth is quite the reverse. The wealth of Ireland is by no means confined to Ulster. The bank accounts prope this. But it is a fact that the wealth of Ireland is diversed northwards, as a result of the diverted northwards, as a result of the June 6th — Mighael Walsh, Cappaquin, case Ulster mare South. Now the take Benth are for the second of the second o financial policy of money which makes go comes from the Ulster branch banks go comes from the South. Now the Ulater-branch banks a the South are lesing their customers. It is stated by an English newspape, that in one day in, a small West of Ireland town the large aum of forty thousand pounds was withdrawn from extrem accounts in Ulater banks and unsferred to the branches of Southern banks. In the town of Clones, in Mediaghan, three Northern banks have beeved notice that huge accounts whe be withdrawn on September 8. 'This money will be transferred to Southern banks the Belfast that the great of Irelands and that its clear at all events that Belfast employs a great deal of cash from other parts of Irelands and that its alleged wealth is by an means self-acquired, but that it depends financially on Southern support. The Belfast boycott is a defens te movement promoted to stop the aground of our people, but it is also having a very important economic effect in proving that it depends largely for its funds on the South.

that it deponent the South.

The Iris Journal of Association has declined to perrait is members to further submit to the indignity of attending twice daily at Jubbin Castle to receive from the Chief of the English Propaganda a daily string of libels on Ireland. Not one correction of any of the falselioned cissued from Dublin Castle has been made, even Dublin Castle has been made, even though persons been these referred though persons been the seferred though persons the seferred the seferred the seferred though the seferred th should have, even for a brief period, gone to Dublin Castle to receive this disgraceful propaganda was humiliat-

Lust week that institution issued a falsified return of casualties in Belfast, but this was as water unto wine to its issue of another "official return" in which it declared that the number of civilians killed in Ireland from January 1st, 1919, to August 21st, 1919, was 18, and the number wounded 48. The number of civilians slain in that period by the English armed forces in Ireland—exclusive of those slain in the Orange riots and in encounters with annul men—was 51, and the number wounded 562. Here are the names of the men, women and children thus done to death, and the date of their slaying.

deuth, and the date of their slaying.
1919.
February 12—Patrick Gavin, Maddenatown, Co. Kildare.
April 6—Robert Byrne, Limerick City.
April 6—Richael Walsh, Dungarvan, Co. Waterford.
June 5—Mathew "Murphy, Dundalk,
Co. Louth.
June 29—Patrick Studdert, Kilkee,
Co. Clare.
August 14—Francis Mürphy (aged 15),
Glán, Co. Clare.
December 28th—Lawrence Kennedy,
Lucan, Co. Dublin.
1920.
January 20—Michael Daroy, CooraJanuary 20—Michael Daroy, CooraJanuary 20—Michael Daroy, CooraJanuary 20—Michael Daroy, Coora-

1920.

January 20.—Michael Darcy, Cooraclare, Co. Clare.
February 4.—Robert O'Dwyer, Limerick City.
February 4.—Miss Helena Johnston, Limerick City.
February 14.—James O'Brien, Rath drum, Co. Wicklow.
March 20.—Alderman Thomas MacCurtain, Cark City.
March 22.—Miss Ellen Hendrick, Dublin.

in.
March 22—Michael Cullen, Dublin.
March 29—James MacCarthy, Thurles,
Co. Tipperary.
March 30—Thomas Dwyer, Bouladuff,
Co. Tipperary.

March 30—Thomas Dwyer, Bouladuff, Co. Tipperary.
April 14—James O'Loughlin, Miltowa-Malbay, Co. Clare.
April 14—Patrick Hennessy, Miltowa-Malbay, Co. Clare.
April 14—Thomas O'Leary, Miltowa-Malbay, Co. Clare.
April 14—Thomas Mulholland, Duudalk, Co. Louth.
April 24—Patrick Dowling, Arklow, Co. Wicklow.
May 18—James Saunders, Limerick City.

gallon, Co. Cork
August 17—Andrew Hayes, Tipperary Town.
August 20—Patrick Kennedy, Annescaul, Co. Kerry,
In addition, Mr. Pierce McCann, T.D., died from the effects of his imprisonment, and two civilians were killed by English military motor lurries.

An institution that pays out of the public purse to conceal these facts—to minimise 51 to 18 and 562 to 49—is a self-confessed criminal. Since the last date mentioned, other crivilians have been slain. Here is how an Irish newspaper describes the latest killings of the mere Irish—

"On Sunday afternoon, according to facts ascertained by our Macroom correspondent, three large motor larries passed through Macroom at top-speed. The first and last each carried eight or ten armed uniformed men, and the middle lorry was completely covered in with canvas. They went towards Ballyvourney, and near the Cross, a quarter of a mile from the village, and not very far from the secure of the recent fatal attack on the midiary patrol, the middle lorry pulled up on the side of the load and the others passed on, taking with them the driver of the covered wagon.

"As the motor lay on the side of the road, it is said, children from the village gathered round it, curious to know what was inside.

"As the crowd grew larger one lad and the tenerity to lift the canvas and look in. Immediately'a voley rang out, and the terrified crowd field in alf directions.

"Wm. Hegaty, a native of Bally."

out, and the terrified crowd fled in all directions.

"Wm. Hegarty, a native of Ballymakeera, who had come along on a bievele and dismounted, was wounded on the shoulder. He dropped his bieyole and ran along the fence, but he received two more builtets, which killed him.

"Close by was the house of Michael."

he received two more bullets, which killed him.

"Close by was the house of Michael Lynch, two of whose sons are in the E.I.C. force, and one of whom served through the late war. The only boy at home, Michael, was having tea when the heard the firing, and rushed out to the gate leading to the road. He was shot once, and he died from the wounds inflicted in three hours.

"It is alleged that the firing was from a machine-gun, and that the road was form up with bullets.

"Rev J. Shinnick, C.C., who came in the state of the

on the scene, inquired for the wounded but would get no information from those in the lorry.

"Hegarty, who was aged 30, was a Volunteer, but Lynch, who was 22, was not a follower of Sinn Fein."

And here is "the account aupplied from General Headquarters" of the British Army of Occupation:

"A military lorry containing an armed escort broke down vesterday near Ballymakeers, Co. Crk, and was attacked by a large party of men. The secont druce the attackers off, one of whom was killed and four wounded. One of the wounded has since died. There were no military casualties."

The recent cordiets of murder recorded by Comment suries in Ireland have been four the straight of the content of the straight of the straight of the straight of the straight of the sinister significance of the fact will be sinister significance of the fact will be supparent to a scandalised word.

The nocturnal raiding of usivete houses throughout Ireland by the Eng-ties are forces which has been carried on for two years that the throughout the developed one new feature. Hitherto the houses of clerymon respected, at least at night. Now the words at least at night. Now the words are being raided also. The waters of the several Carlois clerymon to the words of the several Carlois clerymon to the words of the word are being raided also. The houses of several Catholic clergy men throughou Ireland were raided last week—among them being the house of the venerable Canon Pettit, Parish Priest of Fair view, Dublin, formerly Secretary of His Grace the Archhishop. The object of the petting of the control of

The gentlemen-in-waiting on Sir Bdward Carson are now imposing the "religious test" on new spaper men. Even Dublin Castle has not gone so far in its "war" on the journalistic profession. The "Ulster Herald," on Saturday last, gives the following ac-count of the "testers" activities:— "An entermising American invess."

har in its war on the powers, and in the procession. The "Ulser Herald," on Saturday last, gives the following account of the "testers" activities:—"An enterprising American journalist, named Capt. Edwin F. Weigle, representing 'The Chicago Tribune, last quite an adventure in the Newtownards Road area. He erected his camera, facing Closallon Street on the Newtownards Road area. He erected his camera, facing Closallon Street on the Newtownards Road area. He erected his camera, facing Closallon Street on the Newtownards Road area. He erected his camera, facing the poperation, suddenly conceived the idea that he might be a "Papint," and to assure themselves a member of the mob approached and blundy asked him to state his religion. The American, coming from a free country, was naturally nouplussed at the inquiry-which would not be heard in any part of the world outside the 'North-East Course'—errainly not an any other place in Ireland—failed to grasp the situation, and nonchalantly replied. I guess I've no religion: I'm an American. His interrogatars were not to be put off. He is an American—and why not Christian, too? '—not to be put off. He is an American—and why not Christian, too? '—not to be put off. He is an American—and why not Christian, too? '—you must of million. What the American is a supplied on the part of the Carlon of the Market, with an are you? And the Yankee, with the was one of the Barish of Macroom, held on the 30th ult. Rev. A. J. Brudy, M.A., in the chair, it was proposed by Mr. W. R. G. Williams and carried unanimously—"That we, the members of the Select Vestry of the Parish of Macroom, held on the 30th ult. Rev. A. J. Brudy, M.A., in the chair, it was proposed by Mr. W. R. G. Williams and carried unanimously—"That we, the members of the Select Vestry of the Parish of Macroom, held on the 30th ult. Rev. A. J. Brudy, M.A., in the chair, it was proposed by Mr. W. R friendliest, and most amicable rela-tionships have always existed be-tween the Protestant and Catholic community here, and that such a thing as religious intolerance is unknown amongst us."

The following gentlemen assembled under the "Union Jack" in the Courthouse, Bandon, on Wednesday week: the Earl of Bandon, K.P., Lt.-Colonel Stoppord, Messra, P. S. Brady and J. M. Dickson, R. Me., for the purpose of dispensing English "Justice," but as there was no business doing the stiting of the "Court" was a Bandonsel. The "common people" in Bandon, as in other places in Ireland, prefer to have justice dealt out to them by the "common people."

"I am very glad to leave my case to this Court, "observed a Protestant clergyman, who summoned three men at a Tuam Court for attempting to reverent him cutting timber on his farm, which he had let to them for II months. The Court decreed the lands the rightful property of the complainant, and ordered the defendants to pay $20 expenses. When the clergyman thanked the Court, the President told him it was only a question of doing justice.

Last week a young man charged, with breaking windows in Protestant and Catholic houses was, at a Republican Court held at Templeport, Co. Cavan, sentenced to seven days imprisonment. As he had been ten days in confinement, he was liberated after being severely cautioned.

The Oughterard Republican Court, which sat hast week, disposed of many cases, including two at the instance of the Republic for slander. At the same Court, at the suit of the School Attendance Officer, thirteen purents were fined from 2/6 to 5/- each for not complying with the School Attendance Order.

At a Republican Court held in Kilfanin last week a number of cases were heard. In a land dispute between T.
Fonnell and Mrs. Conneely, Ower, the Court decided that, as a question of title was involved, the case would have to go before the District Court, as the Parish Court had no jurisdiction in the matter except the consent of the paritice in the case use obtained. By the parish Court had no jurisdiction in the matter except the consent of the paritice in the case use obtained. By the parish Court had no jurisdiction in the matter except the consent of the paritice in the case use obtained. By tin Donnellan, Salthill, Galway, was granted 2H to outpersaint for the detruction of his turf at Ower. In the trespass case of Mrs. Connor v. T.
Connor, an order was made that both parties erect their fences, and have no more quarrelling. James Connor summoned a number of persons from Doon for destroying his turf. Mr. Couror, solicitor, appeared for Connor. The Court made an order that Connor cut no more turf in his turfary, but that he be allowed to take home what he has saved this year; both parties to hear their own costs. John Walsh was granted 26 against the tenants of Ower for the destruction of his turf
by entiting it.

At the suit of the School Attendance granted 26 against the tenants of Ower for the destruction of his turf by cutting it.

At the suit of the School Attendance Officer, sixteen parents were, at the same Court, fined sums ranging from 266 to 56 for failing to send their chils dren regularly to school.

Before a Republican Court held last week in Kilcothy, four men were charged with taking part in a drunken brawl on their way from a mission. The prisoners were prosecuted at the suit of an Irish Volunteer. After hearing ewidence, the court fined the faing-leader 20%, and the other three defendants 10% each. The President of the Court strongly condemned the sendadous conduct of young men for the fourt strongly condemned the sendadous conduct of young men for the fourt strongly would be more severely dealt with. His commended the action of the Volunteer who becought the case before the Court.

At the same Court an order was made in the case of a grazing form held by tonants on the Lawin extate, that those having extra stock in the pasture would withdraw them at once.

A remarkable story of how Volunteer successfully tined and brought to justice men who stole two hieveles over seven months ago was told at "Special" Republican Court held law twok in Athenry. The gracing of the videous hieveless, and coats amounting to 22%, to be a "gard and brough to justice men who stole two hieveles haven in Athenry. The prisoners, who admitted their guilt, were ordered to may 29 cach vivalue of the videous, to be a gracing for the court of the court of

with in future. The gentlemen who lest the bioycles thanked the Court and the Volunteers for the clever maner in which the bicycles had been traced, while the prisoners told the President they had no complaint to make of their treatment while in custoday. tody.

At the Republican Sessions held in Tuam on the 26th and 27th August, many case were disposed of, the most serious being one in which Mrs. Mary Tierney, Knockatee, summoned Michl. Loons for assault. Mr. F. B. M'Donagh, solicitor, represented the complainant, and the defendant was defended by Mr. P. J. Concannon, solicitor. Mrs. Tierney said that on the 6th July defendant accused her of having killed his geese, and severely beat and kicked her. Dr. Costello said he attended Mrs. Tierney, who seemed to have been knocked about a good deal. There was a cut about 1½ inches long on the beak of Mre head. To Mr. Concannon—A fall on stones would not cause her inquries. Lyons said he asked Mrs. Tierney if she killed his geese, and she said she would kill himself as well, and began to throw stones at him. He struck her a blow with a resper he had in his band, and she fellower a small wall. Fourteen of his fowl died. James Lyons, son of defendant, said he saw Mrs. Tierney kill two of the geese. A man named Mannion was also looking on. The Court adjourned the case for the attendance of Mannion to give evidence.

Court adjourned the case for the attendance of Mannion to give evidence.

On Tuesday week the first Republican Court was held in the Temperance Hall, Loughrea. Amongst the cases listed was one in which Mr. James Mulcair, solicitor, was prosecuted by the Republic for, as alleged, taking a bicycle, the property of a man named McCarthy, trying to retain same, and using threatening and abusive language towards Republican Pelice while discharging their duties. The police officer in charge gave evidence to the effect that when he approached Mr. Mulcair in connection with the matter he threatened to shoot him. Subsequently the bicycle was taken from Mr. Mulcair's house by the officer, and returned to the owner. The magistrates said that if Mr. Mulcair thad come before the Court and defended his case it would probably have lad a good effect. Apparently Mr. Mulcair thad tome before the Court and defended his case it would probably have lad a good effect. Apparently Mr. Mulcair thad tome before the Court and defended his case it would probably have lad a good off of 21 Mr. Ad. and costs.

The Court confirmed the fines sur.

his own had been taken away by some else. The Court decided to impose a fine of £11%, 6d, and costs.

The Court confirmed the fines suggested by the Volunteers in licensing cases, viz., 2s. 6d. first offence, 5a second offence, and in the case of parties who refuse to accept summonses or pay fines, the matter was left in the hands of the Volunteers.

The Ballygarrett Republican Arbitration Court held its first sitting last week. The Court, which was open to the public, was attended by a very large number of local residents. There was only one case listed, which was that of a long-standing dispute between two neighbours. The decision of the Court was received with every token of satisfaction by both perioderally facilitated by the people of the decision. At the conclusion the President of the Court was not perfectly the people of the interest of the conclusion the President of the Court was not perfectly and the people of the was such that the conclusion the President of the Court was not perfectly in the people of the peop

On Thursday week a Republican County Court was held in the New Ross district, and disposed of mony cases. Six Justices occupied the bench, and the proceedings were opened in Irish.

A Republican Arbitration Court was held in the Carnegie Library, Caherciveen, on Tue-day week. As on previous occasions, the many litigants present were professionally represented. Minute and careful investigation was made into each case by the Judges, and the Btigants in general expressed their approval of the decision arrived at by the Court.

The case of Michael Sullivan, Cappamore, v. Patrick Kavanagh, jun., was the first one dealt with by the Court. This was a summons for assault on the 30th August, in which com-plainent claimed £10 damages for such assault. There was also a cross case by Kavanagh against Sullivan for attempt to assault with a stone on same date. There was also a sum-mons by Sullivan against Kavanagh for breaking down a boundary fence at the mountain between Gurtaforia and Kells. There was a question a title raised in this case by defendant, and same was adjourned pending a hearing in a Higher Court. With re-ference to the assault case Sullivan de-posed he was on Cappamore mountain perence to the disault case Sullivan deposed he was on Cappamore mountain looking after stock. Defendant and stock on the head, inflicting some wounds. Defendant tolds him to go home and clear the blood off himself. There was no argument. Complainant these went to Caherciveen, where he got his wounds' dressed by Mr. O'Connor, chemist. Defendant used threats previously to his mother about him (complainant). It appears the whole rouble arose ine connection with trespass of a horse, Kavanagh's property, on Sullivan's mountain. Defendant claimed the right to liave his borse there. After careful consideration of all the evidence produced the Court imposed on Patrick Kavanagh a fine of is, in addition to costs and solicitors fees, and bound both parties to the peace for twelve months.

Among the other cases dealt with by the Court were the following:—Caherciveen R.D.C. v. Eugene Ring, M. W. O'Neill, John Sullivan, and Mrs. John A. O'Sullivan. These were summonses issued at the suit of plaintiffs for failure to remove manure from their premises, situate at Pound Lane, they having been already notified to do no. It was stated that Notices were duly served on the defendants and inspections curried out. In three cases the manure was removed, except in the case of Eugene Ring, who did not comply with the order. The defendants were fined and ordered to pay exist.

Mrs. John A. O'Sullivan, Caherciveen, issued a summons against Norah O'Sullivan, High Street, for possession of a house situate at High Street. It appears Mrs. O'Sullivan tit the premises at the weekly rent of de. Defendant only poid six weeks rent while in possession of the house for the past six defendant was duried the high control of the past six defendant was duried the rent due, but defendant was duried the rent due, but defendant was duried to had no money as it cases the manure of the formal defendant of the past six defendant was duried to had no money as it cases for the District Court.

Matthew O'Neill, Deelis, summoned J. J. Morris, auctioneer, Caherc

Daniel Mariarty, Killognaven, v. Patrick Coffey, Dooneen. This was an action for breech of warranty in the sale of a cow, purchased by plaintiff on 8th February, 1920. It appeared that defendant engaced the cow to be free and fair, and all right in her paper whereas one of the paps proved to be defective. A hole whereas one, and all right in her paps defective. A hole was discovered to be on the side of same, the milk spouting out through hole when she was being milked, thereby splashing the nilk on the milker. Defending deposed as to sale of cow. He said her paps were free and fair. Cross-examined—Do you think the more holes in paps the faster the milk would come out?—No. The Court decided to give a decree for £4, and 10s. solicitor's fees, ulan costs of Court. This concluded the husiness, and the Court theu adjourned.

citar's fees, also costs of Court. This choulded the business, and the Court thou adjourned.

A District Court under the authority of Dail Eiream. was held in the New Hall, Ballyhaumis, on Monday, week, the presiding arbitrators being Messra. James Morris, M.C.C. (in the chair) and Patrick Healy. There was a large attendance of the general public. Mr. John Coyne, Tavningmare, Ballyhaumis (landlord), plaintiff; Mr. and Mrs. John Forry, Knox Street, Ballyhaumis, tenants and defendants. In this case, which was adjourned from a previous Court, the plaintiff sought possession of a house, his property, held by the defendants at weekly rent of s. Mr. W. D. Coyne appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. J. F. Moles for the defendants. After a very lengthened hearing of the gases, the Court retired to consider its decision. When the Court resumed the President gave the decision as follows:—For the reasons stated we have agreed that Mrs. Forry is to reason agreed that, under the alleft. Coyne, the landlord and we have also agreed that, under the alleft. Coyne, the landlord and we have also agreed that, under the alleft. Coyne, the landlord as a weekly such that we house, and we have increase in the read to that portion of the premises and by Mrs. O'Brien, Mr. Arbitrates and the seasons of the parties, the decision was received the application of Mr. Moles for costs was refused. The decision was received the poputed from Gorev by Volunteers. It gust. The decision was received with load applicate.

Two young girls were recently deported from Gorey by Volunteers. It appears that some time ago the mother of the girls had removed her home to Wexford, but the girls, who are stated to be between 14 and 17 years of age, refused to accumpany her. Upon representation being made to the Volunteer authority in Wexford, an escort was sent who apprehended the girls and brought them to their mother.

The Volunteers in Nonagh have recovered and restored to it.

J. McDonnell, Cloncannon, practically the whole of the large sum of money taken from him on Monday week when he was ettacked by masked men while returning from Teomevara. When the matter was brought to the notice of the Volunteers, they made already taken into custody in connection with the larceny of watches. He denied the charge, but on being carefully searched the sum of £190, in £10 and £20 bank notes, was found in the lining of his coat. The balance of the meney stolen from Mr. McDonnell was in cheques, and these the prisoner admitted having destroyed. Pending his trial the prisoner is detained by the Volunteers.

A number of Volunteers, while peralliers executive districts in Co. Wex-mitted having destroyed. Pending his trial the prisoner is detained by the Volunteers.

A number of Volunteers, while pertolling a certain district in Co. Wexford on Tuesday week were called upon to deal with a man who was reported to be setting first to his house. On arrival the patrol found that the man, who was under the influence of drink, had already set fire to the mattress of the bed. The patrol quenched the fire and cautioned the man. They then withdrew. In a few minutes, however, they were again urgenily called. This time the occupant had locked hinself in, and nuch of the furniture was already on fire, the man himself being in grave danger of being burned alive. The patrol promptly broke into the house, and after considerable difficulty and danger the fire was extainguished. The man was then placed under restraint.

Many cases were disposed of by the Republican Petry Sessions which ast in the New Hall, Ballyhamin on Wednesday week. The presiding artificial control of the chair and patrick. McDonnell. There was a large at tendance of the general public and order was kept by the Volunteers, many of whom were on duty within the hall and its approaches.

After the ordinary cases had been heard an application was made to the Court for an order committing Wm. Fitzmaurice of Leow, to the Castlebar Lunatic Asylum, he having been certified insance by Dr. A. Smith, M.O., Ballyhamis dispensary district. Dr. Smith, who submitted the certificate for the just a part of the certificate for the grant submitted the certificate for the grant submit stated that under the old regime the person about to be committed should have committed or attempted to commit some act of violence to himself or herself or to some other body before being committed. This wan had done nothing wrong so far, but it would be better for himself if he were put under settinin. The President said that the practice under the old regime of not committing an insane person until some act of violence had first been committed was a mistake of the first magnitude. The Court made the order sought and allowed the dector the usual fee of £1 Ls.

Waterford's first Republican District Court was held on Tuesday week, and, says the "Evening News" (Waterford), "it was bninesslike and painstaking. It delved for and griped nothing hut facts. It was not concerned with hoary, unconventional old steatures and 'Acts of Parliament' that did everything but command justice. What it sought to dispense, and did dispanse, was Justice, not 'Law.'"

In opening the Court the President and ... "These Courts, as you are aware, have been set up in order to administer absolute justice between man and man. The formation of conviction which has been borne in upon Dail Eireann that justice was not to be obtained in the ordinary British courts operating in this country. You have 'law' enough, for which you pay dearly, but our bitter experience has been that you do not get any justice—that 'law' and justice as administered in the British courts had oeased to be synonymous terms. Under these circumstances, Dail Eireann, ceen that you not not get any materies that 'law' and justice as administered in the British courts had ceased to be synonymous terms. Under these circumstances, Dail Eirean, the Government of this country, set to work to organise these Courts, and I think you will admit that they have done their work very well-eighed; and that so far as these Courts are operative not even the greatest enemy of the Republican Government has been able to find fault with the way in which justice has been administered. It has been administered impartially the Courts have not been transmelled by any of the old restrictions or usages or precedents that largely control and in many cases defeat, justice in the British Courts. You are likely to be thrown out of your legitimate in the British Courts. You are likely to be thrown out of your legitimate, been and elsewhere, we simply profess that obtain today. In these Courts, here and elsewhere, we simply profess to regulate our justice by one single standard—that is, the standard of Justice and Fair Dealing as between man and man. We are not versed in the echnicalities of 'hav' as it is underested in this country, and we will not allow any of those technicalities to warp our judgment or interfere in any way with the issues which will be raised here.

raised here."

The only case listed was one in which John Roughan, Ennistymon, Co. Clare, proceeded against Simon Foley, Mullinavat, Co. Kilkenny, for the recovery of £18 damages for alleged breach of contract in connection with the sale of Balatta belting. Mr. D. McDonald, Solicitor, Waterford, appeared for the complainant, and the defendant was represented by Mr. P. R. Buggy, Solicitor, Waterford, After evidence had been taken the Court adjourned in order that the President and other Justices might inspect the belting. Later in the week the Court, having inspected the heling, awarded the plaintiffs the £18 claimed.

Before a Republican Court beld last week in Casthehaven, Mrs. Bridget McCarthy, Lickween, summoned her husband for assault. There was a cross-case. Mr. Kingston, solicitor, appeared for complainant, and Mr. Kennedy, solicitor, for the defendant. After hearing evidence at considerable length, husband and wife were each fined bs. and costs, and bound to the peace for twelve months, two Volunteers being told off to see that they behave themselves in an orderly manner.

A gentleman who is taking up residence in Derry has just had an experience of Orange "kultur." He arranged to have his funiture sent from England to Derry vin Belfrast. The other day a crate, in which he had previously packed an avermantel and an unframed picture of souvenir photographs of some Catholic priests, was delivered to him. To outside appearances the hox secured quite in order, but when opened it was found that the overmantel had disappeared and the valuable picture had been hadiy had been killed in an attack on ycross Police Barracks- Evidence hey had been killed in an attack on Holycross Police Barracks. Evidence produced at the inquest showed there had been no attack on the barracks. Even the officer in charge of the troops who shot Lundey admitted under cross-examination that he only "thought" there was an attack on the barracks. The evidence of independent witnesses at the inquest proved that Lumley was deliberately shot by police and military as they drove through the town. The jury's "whict was:—

"We find that Richard Lumley was wilfully murdered by members of the police and military forces. We express our greatest horror and indigation at the dastardly outrage; also at the conduct of the police and military in firing into a house, without any provocation, where a respectable woman was being waked. And we strongly condemn the Dublin Castle officials report of the occurrence as a baseless lie, having for its object to give an excuse for a foul and cowardly murder." Militarism:—Collectors for the Sustanance Fund instituted for Irish rail-waymen who were being dismissed tenance Fund instituted for Irish rail-waymen who were being dismissed for refusing to convey munitions for the British Army of Occupation, were held up at Dun Laoghaire, Co. Dublin, by armed British policemen. British police in Cork have comman-feered a large tenement house in the British police in Cork have commandeeded a large tensement house in the city.

Soldiers of the Northamptonshire Regiment seized the village hall and Protestant Church buildings at Templetucky, Co. Tipperary.

Dublin city mail van drivers have decided not to work during Curfew hours. The drivers hold permits to be abroad, but this has not secured their safety, as some of the drivers have had narrow escapes when fired upon by military patrols.

The Master informed Youghad Guardians, Co. Cork, that four soldiers pulled down the Sinn Foin flag put up by the Board. When the porter was putting up another, soldiers again took forcible possession of it, pointing rifles at him, and taking a lock and chain off a gate.

A similar incident was reported to A allow Guardians, where four soldiers presented revolvers at the porter and an inmate, and broke solates in removing the flag.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 14th

Raids: At Emly, Go. Tipperary, British police and military raided upwards of twenty residences.

A large force of British military raided the Enuiscorthy Sim Pein Club rownies, Co. Wexford, The military searched those on the premises and removed books and club fittings. Later they raided the houses of five prominent Republicans.

In Clouphjordan, Offaly, British police raided for arms upwards of twenty residences.

police raided for arms upwards or wenty residences. British military and police raided at midnight the houses of Messrs, M. Dwyer, Templetuohy; J. Kennedy and J. Hynes, Ballinroe, Co. Tipperary, The raiders stole ten fowls from Mr. Hynes.

" A SERIOUS THING."

(Centinued from page 3),

"A SERIOUS THING."

(Continued from page 3),
me that. What are you thinking of? Answer me that.
Second Roman:—I'm thinking it's an extraordinary thing that every country we occupy seems to be inhabited exclusively by rebels.
First Roman (producing paper, contemptuously):—It's a pity that you were not with Varus. Perhaps you'd like to hear Caesar's speech in the official roport. (Declaims):—
"Sedition has been banished from the Forum, sorruption from the Campus Martius and discord from the Senate House. Justice, equity and industry have been revived in the state; authority has been given to the magistrates, majesty to the Senate, and solemnity to the Courts of Justice. Virtuous acts are honoured, wicked deeds are punished, the humble respects the powerful takes precedence of the humble without conteming him. Whee were provisions more moderate in price? When were the blessings of peace more abundant? Augustan peace diffused over all the regions of the East and West, and all that lies between Satth and North preserves every corner of the world free from all read of predatory molestation. The cite of the have been blessed by the humanity and consideration of their Goverours. And this province in particular by having Pontius Plate d the Lady Claudia to assist him in promoting the peace and welfare of the district of his administra-

Perhaps you'd like me to read you another little extract from the public orator for the day—(Reads):—
"Our responsibility is enormous. In the absence of agreement on any matter of political or social reform, the Roman Government is directly responsible for the shaping and conduct of Galilean affairs, and its policy must be guided by suprame considerations—the welfars of Galilee and the safety of the rest of Imperial Rome and of the whole Empire. Under no pressure, external or internal, can it consent to father or promote any policy that might impair the one or importl the other. The welfare of Galilee depends on good government—which means equal justice and opportunity for all, firm administration of the law, protection for life and property and the free development of the country's intellectual, material and spiritual resources, moral education, in fact." Are ye listening? "At the present time Galilee's concountry's intellectual, material and spiritual resources, moral education, in fact," Are ye listening? "At the present time Galilee's condition is such that any political experiment must involve the greatest danger. If it should satisfy disaffection, the Empire would be betrayed; if it should fail to satisfy disaffection, no good and much barm would be done. There remains, then, the course which duty and interest alike dictate—Erm and honest government under the existing Constitution. With that responsibility of the Roman Government neither Persia nor Africa has any right or, as we believe, any desire to interfere."

[A Voice without calls, Lazarus arises and passes from the tomb, despite the attempt of the First Roman to stop him].

to stop him).

Second Roman (amazed):—And he was dead and buried three days.

I think I'll go away (rising). I'll go away out of this.

First Roman:—And join the movement, will you? Ah, man, have sense, take up yer musket and try and have some self-respect. It's enly a dead dew.

Second Roman (takes up musket and looks at it):—I'll sak the officer what's the use of a thing like this when death itself cannot stop the movement. Throws it against

Throws it against

when death itself council stop the movement. (Throws it against wall again.) inter Roman (looking at it):—What! You refuse to shoulder the burden of civilisation.

econd Roman:—What has your civilisation ever produced to equal this movement out from death?

what Roman (after a Pause, sud-lisation ever produced to equal this movement out from death?

First Roman (after a Pause, suddashy):—What! Is that the movement he was referring to? The movement in the limbs of the corpse? Rising from the dead? Second Roman:—The dead has risen! First Roman:—Well, if this thing spreads I'll send in my resignation. Second Roman (slowly):—And join the movement with me?

First Roman (scornfully):—Certainly not! But I'll send in my resignation, because where any Jew can rise from the dead is no place for a decent Roman. What's the use of all my service? If there is to be no more death, there can be no more death, there can be no more valour. What's the use of discipline? What's due to de of discipline? What's the good of bravery? What becomes of fortitude and manhood and even come of certain death in the second Roman and deven.

What becomes of fortitude and man-hood and even common deepery? Second Roman:—But it is splendid, splendid, no more death, hurrah I will not be afraid now. I I will have valour, hurrah, hurrah. First Roman:—I'll see Pliate about it, it's a damned serious thing. (A murmur of amazement and applause is heard from the dis-tance.)

Second Roman:—Oh, please, please, do not see Pilate, he might spoil it. He would stamp out the movement. (Dancing):—No more death!

movement, (Dancing):—No more death!
Centurion:—What's all this about?
What has happened here?
Second Roman :—No more death!
Centurion (ignoring him and turning in First).—Well?
First Roman (pointing to tomb):—He came out and went down to join the nuceting, Sir.
Centurion:—Who came out?
First Roman:—Lararus, Sir.
Centurion:—Who came out?
First Roman:—Lararus, Sir.
Centurion:—Why was he not challenged?
First Roman:—He was, but he refused to stop.
Centurion:—Why was he not killed?
First Roman:—Because he was already dead.
Second Roman (exultingly):—There is no more death!

Centurion (puzzled and incredulous) -Do you mean to say (pointing open tomb) that the corpse ros broke open that tomb and defied you sentries?

First Roman:—That's it, Sir. A very serious affair, Sir, under the regulations, Sir; I must report the matter directly to the Governor-Second Roman:—He wants to restore death. Don't let him, Sir.

First Roman:—It may not be serious,
Sir; but ye see, if this kind of thing is allowed to go on it will put an end to warfare.
Centurion:—Now, now, I really can't see how the abolition of death would put an end to warfare.
First Roman:—Welf, Sir, speaking as a plain soldier, Sir, I would object to working overtime or fighting
after death.
Centurion:—Aw, 'of course, by Jove
Centurion:—Aw, 'of course, by Jove

Centurion:—Aw, of course, by Jove, yans, so it would!

First Roman:—They are an upsetting, unruly lot in these parts.

Centurion:—What the Housing wants is firm administration of the law and protection of (looking at open tomb) death and private property, and "free development property intellectual resources, moral education, in fact."

First Roman:—Yes, sir.

A. M. D. G.

LORETO CONVENT, NAVAN.
BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL.
Pupila prepared for Intermediate, Mariculation,
County Council Scholarships and various Misdeal Estaminations. Special Courses in all branches of Domestic Economy, including Cookery, NeedleSCHOOL RE-OPENS ON MONDAY, SEPT, chiSCHOOL RE-OPENS ON MONDAY, SEPT, chiFor terms apply to—THE SUPERIORESS.

A. M. D. G. LORETO CÓNVENT, NAVAN. ST. ANNE'S.

Boarding School for young girls in connection with our Primary Schools. Pupile prepared for business, Civil Service and King's Scholarship Examinations.

Terms very moderate. Apply to SUPERIORESS. SCHOOL RE-OPENS ON TUESDAY, AUG. 24.

CAPUCHIN FRANCISCAN COLLEGE, ROCHESTOWN, CO. CORK

COLLEGE RE-OPENS TUESDAY, SEPT. 14th Boys are expected to return that evening not see that by 5 o'clock treat, or terms, etc., apply to— REV. FR. BONAVENTURE, O.S.F.C.

CORE UNION.

TEA WANTED.

THE Guardinas of the above named Union will on Thursday, the 10th instant, up to the Interest of Inter 2nd Sept., 1920.

Books of Irish Interest.

Evening Memories, Wu. O'Brien. 17 o'The Making of Ireland and its Undoing. Mrs. Stephorf Green. 11 & Married in May. Mrs. Pender. 5 o'The Draintle Drummer. A Novel 10 be 10 b

MAIRE NI RAGHALLAICH, 87 UPPER DORSET STREET, DUBLIN.

INSURANCE AGENTS WANTED

City of Dublin Assurance Society UPPER O'CONNELL STREET,

IRELAND'S OLDEST AND MOST PRO-CRESSIVE ASSURANCE SOCIETY. OUR FUNDS ARE INVESTED IN II PRISH TRUSTEE SECURITIES II

has spread far and wide. Have you worn
"Ita." Socks? Have you seen the, "Ita."
The socks? Have you seen the, "Ita."
there is still SOMETHING WORTH LIVING
FOR. "Ita." Hosiery is made by Irish labour. It is good value. It is perfectly made. It is Irish through and through.
Need more be said.

As your draper for "Ita" goods. ST. ITA'S KNITTING INDUSTRY, ENNIS.

FRANK J. H. O'DONNELL, Eustage Street Buildings,

It will pay you to stock "Ita" mas

A. S. CLARKIN

FOR BEST HOUSE COALS. 304 GT. BRUNSWICK STREET, DUBLIN Talaphone 2759.

MOTORS SPOT MOTOR CAR CO.,

Motors for Hire. Phone 2769.

Quiet, yet Contral, for Business or Piessure. FLEMING'S HOTEL

32 GARDINER'S PLACE, DUBLIN.

Two minutes walk from Gardiner Street Chapel, or Trame.

CAMOUFLAGE.

Tis camoning of Egglish many of the Costume made of Egglish laws forbade the wearing of Costumes after the frish fashion is order to substitute English goods. Its order to substitute English goods. Its order to substitute English goods. The Costumes of t

M. A. RYAN.

Make your arrangements in time with THE NEW IRISH MINING CO., WOLFHILL, ATHY, for your Winter Supply of Wolfhill Coal.

BOLANDS LTD..

BREAD,

FLOUR.

CONFECTIONERY.

RICH CAKES, PLAIN AND ORNAMENTED.

OAPEL STREET, DUBLIN, MODEL BAKERY, KINGSTOWN.

Mills . . .

RINGSEND ROAD, SELECT. MODERATE. CONVENIENT SUPPORT IRISH MILLING.

THE MONUMENT CREAMERY

ABSOLUTELY CHOICEST GUARANTEED PURE CENTRIFUGAL FRESHLY-MADE

IRISH CREAMERY BUTTER

Manufactured in the best Butter-producing Districts in Ireland, from Pure Pasturints O'seet Grain, under the most scientific and modern methods. Always uniform in quality. For a producing the producing a pulling the producing pr

THE MONUMENT CREAMERY

76 PARNELL STREET AND 25 LOWER CAMDEN STREET, DUBLIN

D. E. WILLIAMS, Ltd. Wholesale Tea . Merchants, TULLAMORE.

SAMPLES POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

National Land Bank, Ltd.,

AN IRISH BANK WITH AN IRISH PURPOSE.

£180,000,000

Few people in Ireland realise that this colossal amount of money is lying on deposit in the various Irish Joint Stock Banks and Post Office Savings Banks. It represents the hard-earned savings of Irish industry and agriculture. It is oarning low rates of interest and is largely used to finance competitors of the people who earned it.

Hundreds of our young men and women are leaving Ireland weekly. Hely to establish them on the land at home by depositing your savings in the National Land Benk.

Current Rates of Interest. Deposit at Call ... ... " One year "
Three years "
Five years " Lionel Smith Gordon Carrying security of first mortgage on Irish land.

FULL PARTICULARS ON APPLICATION TO MANAGER.

WHY SUPPORT THE FOREIGNER? YOU CAN OBTAIN

A WATERPROOF MADE IN IRELAND

BETTER THAN MANY AND EQUAL TO ANY.

Support Home Industries and Stop Emigration

FRANCIS CASEY & SONS.

CHARLEMONT, MOY, CO TYRONE.

The Attempt to Degrade

[Mr. Wm, O'Brien, in his recently-published "Evening Memories," tells the story, which we quote in part, of the attempt of the English Government to degrade Irish political prisoners in his day, Mr. O'Brien's account will have a special interest for Irishmen to-day?

his day. Mr. O'Brien's account will have a special interest for Irahamen to-day. He trish prisoner, who was received with provoking honour by the people of Manchester, and lodged in the State apartments of his Royal lighness of Charence by their Lord Mayor, was the norming after his transfer to Irahand felled to the ground by Mr. Balfour's warders in his prison of Clonnel, with every accessory of stuped barbarity, for refusing to do the very thing respecting which, after a long struggle, he had been formally justified, a few months before, in his refusal; now, as then, the Chief Secteary gloried in these not very valorous insults to his captive, and this time with a perceptible ingredient of spite running through his misrepuesentations and jests; and now, even more decisively than then, it was to und in a capitulation on every point distated by his prisoner, and the final disgrace of the policy of prison degradation which he hed made the touch stone of his Irish Administration. If one need not dispute the Jovetike aloofness from human infirmities which Mr. Balfour claimed when he told Mr. Dillen in the House of Commons "he could assure the long gentleman that no articles he even read, either in Irish or his Editor," it can only be observed that his words and his official acts were thosen with an infecicious gift for throwing suspicion upon his own boast.

First let me recall the terms in which the Chief Secretare, and in the whole the chief Secretare, and in the throwing suspicion mpon his own boast.

First let me recall the terms in which the Chief Secretary saw fit to address a festive Unionist banquetting party in Dubin at a moment while the people of Ireland, and, perhaps, a considerable portion of the people of strainty of the people of the people

e expressly inserted in "the om-report."

I had the honour of receiving at at a quarter to one last night— chonged laughter)—a telegram from Lord Mayor of Dublin—(renewed gater)—which I allude to now be-ce I take it, it represents the formalists' case with regard to Mr. lillian O Brien's treatment in prison, it as his document, the original of and in this document, the original which I have got in my hand, I read-il won't read it all)—' illegal and brutal violence'—(laughter)— the atton stargher and a star of ching and beating down your peli-adversary by torture (laugh-No, that is not it. Here it is. of Drien has now been naked in all for thirty-six hours—(roars of ter)—and to-night we learn that lying speechless, and that the authorities, considering his tion dangerous, have applied to or instructions.' That, gentleof the total dangerous, have applied to for instructions. That, gentle, is the operative, the important of the telegram which you will ably have all seen in the "Free-'s Journal," and which I shall to allude to in quite another conson in a few moments. Now, I to eave to you that every sincle have to allude to an ection in a few moments, nection in a few moments, want to say to you that every single substantial statement in that passage I have read is wholly and absolutely in the charge of the same substantial statement in that passage to lawe read is wholly and absolutely incorrect—(cheers). What has happened is this: Mr. O'Brien, after an Odyssey which I won't further dwell on, was arrested in the ordinary course, and was taken to Clonnel prison. When he got to Clonnel prison he refused to allow—he three very obstate in the way of—any medical examination; he declined absolutely to be weighted—(laughter)—and, as he did not permit the doctor to form any indigment, from personal examination of his case, he went through the ordinary process to which every prisoner is subject who offends against the law—(cheers). This happened on Thursday, It might surprise some of you—some of you who read, if there are such, who read only Nationalist the subject of the prisoner in the law—(cheers). This happened on the surprise who the prisoner is the prisoner of the prisoner in the prisoner of the prisoner in the prisoner of the prisoner of Irish Office, and, therefore, it is only under exceptional circumstances that any questions connected with any prisoner in Ireland come before me. However, when I went down to the office on Friday, the facts which I have just stated were brought before me, and I immediately proceeded to write a minute in which I said that, of course, if Mr. O'Brien, having the prison clothes at his disposal, chose to stay in his shirt—laughter)—and if he refused to shout himself to any medical examination whatever, any evil consequences to his health which might enclothes at his disposal, chose to stay his shirt—(laughter)—and if he refused to submit himself to any medical examination whatever, any evil consequences to his health which might ensure he would be responsible for, and not us—thear, hear, and applause). But, at the same time, I said I did not think we ought to permit Mr. O'Brien to ruin his constitution for the purpose of injuring Her Majesty's Government—(laughter and applause)—and I, therefore, gave directions that, as Mr. O'Brien would not allow himself to be medically examined, the reports made by Dr. Ridley and Dr. Barr upon Mr. O'Brien when he was in Tullamore jail should be sent down at once by special message to the doctor at Clondard and the sent down at the continuous distribution of the doctor who had examined Mr. O'Brien the condition of his health was, the doctor should mast carefully watch Mr. O'Brien, and take are that no eccentricity of his should be also do the doctor should make a the doctor of the should be a fine of the doctor of the doc is absurd to say that the management of Irish prisoners is in my department (expect of February 25th, 1882). Within a couple of days after the publication of my reply, he was obliged publicly to confess that his first statement was, to put it bluntly, a falsehood, and his defence of irrasponsibility was proved to be so impudently at variance with the truth that he subsequently acknowledged he was personally responsible for the freatment of his prisoners in every modern that the subsequently acknowledged he was personally responsible for the freatment of his prisoners in every many that the subsequently acknowledged he was personally responsible for the freatment of his prisoners in every many that the subsequently acknowledged he was personally responsible for the freatment of his prisoners in every many that the subsequently acknowledged he had been as the subsequently acknowledged he was personally responsible to the first was developed to my be to ask that a doctor shall be present during any attack upon me. He said, 'I have to ask that a doctor shall be present during any attack upon me. He said, 'I cannot do that; you have passed the doctor.' Then,' I said, 'you will have to strip me by force,' or words to that effect. I placed my back to the further wall of the cell; three warders immediately rushed at me with the chief warder. The four seized me, and a viclent struggle took place between us, the governor standing hy. They succeeded after a struggle in flinging me on my back on the floor, this gring my tothes away meanwhile. They are seen the relaxed, and I struggled to my feet again, and renewed the struggle, while my clothes were being ton off one by one. I was then fluor, a second time on the floor; this time on my face. I continued to struggle with all my force, while my clothes were being ton off one by one. I was then fluor from the struggle, while my clothes were being ton off one by one. I was then fluor his rangel, while my clothes were being ton off one by one. I was then fluor his rangel with a

**F.g. " He had never pretended that the course he had pursued was free from doubt-and difficulty. . but they had not yet said anything in the debute which either convinced him that he was wrong in going so far as he had gone or convinced him that he ought to have gone further."

The governor said, 'Surely you have

The governor soid, 'Surely you have resisted enough now; you know it has to be done.' I said to him, 'You know little of me if you do not know that the struggle is only beginning now. The instant my hands are free, I will amy the clothes off again.'

"The warders having followed Alderman Hackets to the door, I instantly threw off the prison clothes. Three of them rushed at me again, and another struggle took place. They succeeded in foreing on some of the prison clothes again, seizing and wisting my arms all the time. In consequence of my resistance the chief warder told them not to mind forcing on the coat or vest this time. I again became so faint that they again put water on my lips, hat contended to hold my arm while I stood leaning against the wall for a considerable time. So far as I can estimate the scene had by this time lasted half an hour."

The game was this time definitely lost. In my own case, the reparation was almost comically complete. The criminal of Clonnel jull, brutalized by four turnkeys, bidden scrub the flags of his cell, deprived even of his plank-bed for refusing, and threatened with "mechanical restraints." was a few mechanical restraints," was a few days afterwards transferred to Galway in a first-class special train, like a magnifico on his travels, attended by two warders who acted as his affectionate valets, and was themceforward treated with un affilmence of consideration far surpassing his three modest treated with un affilmence of consideration of the control of the con

the treatment of the scurviest criminals.

Ahove all he was lost in surprise at the depravity of the Irishmen who could avow that the object of their agitation with regard to prison treatment as of their whole lives was to be country between the government of their country between the government of their sible. "It is not humanity, but politics, which is at the root of the whole matter," he exclaimed, in the tone of a scandalised archangel. As if he could make a handsomer acknowledgment of their right to be treated as political prisoners, or more innocently reveal that, if he was now compelled to abandon his own policy of degrading and defaming them for precisely the same political motives, it was because they had succeeded, and he had failed, in carrying the opinion of the civilised world, and even of his own countrymen with him. For, in his own words, "It was not in the interest of humanity, but of politics" that he now threw up the sponge. The avoval was wrung from him in one bitter-sweet interjection after another—"The truth, undoubtedly, is that, as I admit, you have-produced some temporary effect among your own followers" (the was speaking of Gladstone's) (February 25th, 1889), and later on; "I have been told over and over again that there is a great tide of public opinion rising on the subject. I am not at all prepared to say that the judicious efforts of the gentleman who got up. The National Protest may make a subject to the subject. I am not at all prepared to say that the judicious efforts of the gentleman who got up. The National Protest may be up to the public mind in one for the control of the country. I do not doubt it at all. I quite admit there may be and very likely is something entirely justifiable in the feeling which has been aroused." (March 1314, 1839).

All this was but to lead up to the substerding of calling in a Special Committee on Prison Rules to give Mr. Balfour an escape from his quanday. The letter of instruction to Lord Aberdare's Committee to the nothing of the causistical and evasive spirit which had inspired the rest of his dealings with his Irish antagonists. The one of the committee to inquire into the classification of prisoners and confined the Committee to affect a live which really mattered was whether political prasoners were to be classified as such, or for political reasons branded as criminals. In his warrant to Lord Aberdare's farcial investigation whether it was desirable to after the rules as to prison dress and the clipping of prisoners' hair in the interests of "cleanliness and health." Lord Aberdare's Committee to their commits. In the letter of the Lith April. 1880, defining the cha

the prohibitive nature of their commission:

"In the letter of the 11th April, 1889, defining the character of the inquiry, you stated that it was not proposed to refer to the consideration of prisancers, according to the real or supposed motive of their offence. To this direction we have endeavoured to conform, and though we have, been unable to suggest any alterations in the existing practice altogether, unconnected with the general changety of the offence for which the imprisonment is inflicted, we make no suggestions or recommendations founded upon the real or supposed motives of the prisoners.

on the real or supposed motives of the prisoners."

They even so far transgressed themselves against Mr. Balfour's rules as to administer a sharp reprimand for the "arbitrary and unequal treatment" accorded to Mr. Edward Harington, Mr., and in their report adverted in the following terms of vindication to the prison protests which used to appeal to the risibility of the Chief Secretary in his early manner. "Whatever may have been its original intent, this (prison) dress has too long been associated with all that is vile and contemptible to be assumed by lesser offenders without a sense of degradation and a shock to the self-respect which should never be unnecessable to the should never be under the should never be nev was "injurying the Government" the Chief Secretary had to go through the form of ordering of his own authority what had been wrung from him at the expense of grievous suffering and of the Chief Secretary had to go through the form of ordering of his own authority what had been wrung from him at the expense of grievous suffering and of the Three Points of their resistance was complete. Unfortunately, those tocures methods so far succeeded that he rights of political prissoners continued to be left dependent upos the convenience of the Government of the moment and upon the amount of resistance apprehended, instead of being honestly written out in the prison code; and as the Liberal Home Raie Government, during their sight years of all but omnipotent power, neglected either to make the Prison Rules clear or to repeal the infamous Coercion Act, the resistance to which brought power within their reach, the country ten thirty years after, harrowed with the same spectacle of thousands of young Irishmen brought to death's door and beyond, in the same protest against the treatment of felons and miscreants being inflicted upon men whom England, were they struggling in any Empire except her own, would hall as the beroes of human freedom. Now, as then, the prison rules are in a set of chaos and vaccillation, as being the prison rules are in the year in which England is precessing her wings with pride in her tremendous conquests at the guardian angel of the small mationalities that the young generation of Sim Fein should be carrying on their lonely prison the arm of Mr. Balfour and nerved the hearts of his prisoners in the days of Gladstone.

Conciliation

British military have barricaded the mode leading South from Armagh, and il vehicles and travellers are being earched. Many cases of maltreat-nent of travellers by troops have been ment of travellers by troops have been reported.

Militarism:—In Cork these was much military activity on the 10th inst. The Courthouse was commandeered by soldiers, who erected barbed wire entanglements and removed the Republican fing which had been hoisted there for some weeks.

British military have established themselves at Lifford, Co. Donegal, and have mounted a machine gun on the Courthouse and another on the site of the R-LC. barracks.

TUESDAY, JULY 13th

Raids:—At Swords, Co. Dublin, British military, accompanied by a policeman, raided the residence of Mr. Frank Lawless, Republican M.P. For North Dublin. The house of Mr. Phelim Coleman in the same locality was also raided and searched.

One hundred British soldiers of the Northamptonshire Regiment raided two burial grounds at Templetundy. British military and police raided the residence of Mr. P. Tobin, newly-elected Republican member of the Enniscorthy Urban Council.

At Killeagh, Co. Cork, British pelice and military raided nine house.

Arrest:—Mr. R. Brown, Killeagh, Co. Cork, was arrested "on suspicion" by a British military patrol.

Armed Assaults:—A priest on his way from Mass was held up by a British military cordon on Puckstown Road, Donnycarney, Co. Dublin. He was searched at the point of the bayonet.

bayonet.
Pedestrians at Carrick-on-Suir, Pedestrians at Carrick-on-Suir, Co. Waterford, were assaulted by a British policeman accompanying a military patrol. While their hands were held above their heads in response to the military challenge, the policeman at tacked them, striking them in the faces.

military cnateurs.

In South Leitrim passers by are held up, questioned, searched and maltreated by parties of British military who patrol the country.

British police fired into a charabane full of holiday-makers at Killarney, Co. Kerry. Three ladies were wounded, one seriously.

Miritary—The following verdict was the seriously.

Miritary—The following verdict was military and police without procession with the serious of the serious of damaged, and across it was rudely strawled. We want no Popes here. The railway company, with whom a complaint has been lodged, will, it is assumed, find little difficulty in locating the centre where the crate received attention.

Some weeks ago the English Government "advised" the Cunard Company of the "danger to incoming ships" at Coh. We commented at the time on the pretended nature of this danger. Cunard steamers bound west from Liverpool in the afternoon are able to approach the Irish coast at night, embark passengers at Cobh, and proceed west again. According to the English Administration, it is only from America that there is danger. There is no danger, of course, from England. It is safe to approach take Irish emigrants aboard, and to enter the larbour for the purpose, but it is dangerous to approach within sight of the coast to land American citizens.

Even before the war, or before the English Administration issued a notice to mariners that it could not guarantee the Irish coast, it was seriously argued by the Admiral Supportinendent advising the English Post Office on maritime affairs, that it was dangerous at any time and in any weather for large liners to enter Cork Harbour. The English have never been able to guarantee Cork Harbour. weather to large. The English have never been able to guarantee Cork Harbour. England claims to be mistress of the seas, but Ireland claims to be mistress of the approaches to the seas.

Alexander I. Yorke, Assistant District Attorney, New York County, writing from Paris to the American Consul, at Dublin, advises him that it is customary in the State of New York to permit relatives and friends of those confined in public institutions to visit inmates during the hours presented, and that he knows no legal reason to prevent the wife and son of James Larkin from visiting him in James activations. The English Administra-tion objects to Americans interfering in Ireland, even in their own affairs. The English have good reason to fear the intervention of public prosecutors in Ireland.

On September 18 the United States Mail Stemuship Company is timed to commence its new European service. The s.s. Panhandle State is to make the first round trip from New York, calling at Cobh and Boulogue, with London as the terminal port.

The total shipments of live stock om Ireland this year to August 28th ave reached one million and forty-two lousand, which is considerably in exof last year.

The Central Board of the Co-operative Union at Manchester has passed a resolution "deploring the failure of the Government either to passed a resolution "deploring the failure of the Government either to protect co-operative creameries in Irenand, or bring to justice those responsible for their destruction." This resolution may be well-intentioned; but it is a singularly ill-worded and described occument. These creameries have been openly destroyed by the uniformed police and soldiers of the "Government." The facts have been uniformed police and soldiers of the uniformed police and soldiers of the protect property which has been destroyed by their own agents is a cruel to protect property which has been destroyed by their own agents is a cruel to protect a lamb as to invite the "Black and Tans" to protect a creamery. The four million members of the Union must be very innocent if their commonense can be imposed upon by a resolution of this character. If the Central Board means to protect the creameries they should draft a resolution demanding the withdrawal of the "Government's" Topers from Ireland. This would help to stop the burning of the creameries. The tenants on the estate of Mr. H. L. King. D.L., Ballyfin, have purchased 690 acres at Coole for 224,500. The terms of sale have been arranged by the Arbitention Court, the purchasers forming a Co-operative Credit Society to raise the money in conjunction with the Land Bank.

The reply of India to Dyeriam is taking the form of a non-co-operation movement. The obligations of the ann-co-operators are described by the London "Times" as follows:—
"1. The surrender of all titles of honor or honorary offices.

2. Suspension by lawyers of practice and settlement of civil disputes by private arbitration.

3. Non-participation in Govern-

I Boycott of Government schools by parents.

Boycott of reformed councils

Boycott of reformed councils.
 Reformed to accept any civil or utilitary post in Mesopotamia or to refuse to offer as units for the army specially in Turkish territories now being administered in violation of petages.

Vigorous prosecution of Swa-dishi movement, inducing people to be satisfied with India's own produc-tions and manufactures.

8. The public are asked to refrain from taking any service either civil or military and they are enjoined to avoid all violence."

The "Muslim Outlook" of August

all violence.

The "Muglim Outlook" of August is says:—

"The use of Indian troops for suppression of national aspirations stands condenaned on political and moral grounds. Its moral aspect is more clearly and prominently explained by two such great exponents of Indian thought and culture as Mahatma Gandhi, touching this point says in "Young India" of June 30:—

Whatever the fate of non-co-operation, I hope that not a single Indian will offer his services for Mesopotania, where the same of the moral transfer of the moral integrity and physical strength."

Interviewed by a representative of the Dublin "Evening Telegraph" on Wednesday of last week in reference to the following statement of the Lucerne correspondent of the "Daily

"Sir H. Greenwood told me to "Sir H. Greenwood told me to-day that the Government decision regarding the Lord Mayor of Cork will not be departed from. If the Sin Feiners had been coutent to accept anything else than complete independence the Premier's proposals for meeting their leaders would not have remained manusered. The Premier is still ready to meet them should any responsible repre-sentative of Sinn Fein come for-ward."

Mr. Griffith said: "There is hore any

ward."

Mr. Griffith suid: "There is here an obvious effort to molecul foreign opinion of excussion with the proposal and is being deliberately elected not that is being deliberately elected not that the British Government proffered the Sian Fein leaders everything, except absolute independence, and received no answer to their proposals. It is quite untrue that any proposals have been received by the elected representatives of the people of Ireland from the British Government. As I said three weeks ago, when Dail Eirean received any such proposals Dail Eireann would deal with them."

A Serious Thing

In "A Serious Thing," produced at the Abbey Theatre, the author of "The Enclanted Trousers" interpreis from sympathetic observation the Imperialist mind. We give below some extracts from the Illiminating conversation of the First Roman and the Control of the Interpretation of the First Roman and the Control of the Interpretation of the First Roman and the Control of the Interpretation of Int

First Roman Soldier enters from the left and takes up a position as sentry by the wall. After looking about he sighs and sits down on a sentry by the wast. After footing about he sighs and sits down on a First Roman:—Well, well, trenty wars decent service and here! am! But it's a great time in the world's history anyway—even if it isn't in mine. And here's the paper they send round to tell us how great are the times we're living in—I keep it to console ne (takes it from his pocket). It's well to be supplied with the world's news here in this God-forgotten part of the Empire. "The wife of Pilate had a dream." Well, I wouldn't put it past her! It doesn't say who she dreamt about. Enter Centurion.

Centurion. He is quite a boy, and he.

Enter Centurion.

Centurion (He is oute a boy, and he speaks in a most affected makner). Hah! Lookey here now! These are your instructions. You are stationed here to prevent illegal assemblies, seditious speeches and all that kind of thing. You see? The movement must be prevented from spreading. Report to me at the change of guard. But, but, but, if anything serious occurs meanwhile you are to report direct to Pontius Pilate. (He points out Left with his cane), on your own re-sponsibility. Because, because, you see, the Governor takes quite a personal interest in the Govern-personal ment.

First Roman:—Yes, Sir.
Conturion:—O by Jove, I had nearly forgotten. There should be two of you on guard. Shouldn't there?
I think it is . . . . who else is

I think it is . . . who else is there?

First Roman:—Obadiah, Sir. Centurion:—Bai Jove, you are perfectly right; yes, of course, Obadiah, quite recently recruited (whith reassured authority):—Now, then, where is Obadiah?

First Roman:—He's coming up the hill, Sir. Centurion:—There's no disciplining these damn local recruits. For two straws when the fellow comes I will contain a summary of the control of the Centurion:—Weil, I don't want to be too severe. But his unpunctuality deserves it.

First Roman:—Quite right that, Sir; but he might take it that you were demobilizing him, and desert.

Centurion:—You don't mean it. The unprincipled beast. There's no making these Jews soldiers.

(Enter Obadiah, the Second Roman)

Second Roman (addressing First and speaking with marked Jewish ac [Inter Obadiah, the Second Roman)

Second Roman (turning) of doe not speaking with marked Jewish ac [Inter Obadiah, the you diake?

Second Roman (turning) of doe not sharply):—Why are you lake?

Second Roman (fumbling to salute with hand raised to forebend!—It must be the distance, Sir; I counted a thousand paces from the barracks, and lo and behold! it was longer when I got here.

Centurion:—Don't let this occur again or you will be sent on police duty to Gradara. Now, lookey here!

These are your instructions. D'sesse? You are stationed here to prevent illegal assemblies, people performed at once. It is that clear?

Second Roman (scratching his head with the hand still raised to salute):—Will we permit the be-ginning of the speeches before they become seditions?

pecome seditions?

Centurion puzzled; After a Pause, emphatically):—There must be no sedition. You two are the cordon sanitaire. There must be no sedition, either in thought, word or deed.

deed. Second Roman:—But how will we know?

Centurion: What! You don't know what sedition is? Then the sooner you learn the better! Do your duty and report.

(Exit.) Second Roman brings his hand to his side with a slap. First Roman (turning to Second with profound contempt)—Well, you're a nice omadhaun anyway!

Second Roman:—Vell How wos I to know? The speeches may not begin with sedition, and he did not any there was to be no speaking. Are we to forbid every kind of speech? Is no one to utter a word? Where, then is freedom of speech?

First Roman (looking in direction in which Centurion went, and then seating himself cautionsly on a rock with a sign of contents).—If there is to be no assembly, how can there be seditious speeching? Did ye ever hear a speech without an andience? And if there was itself, what kind of an idiot are ye that ye can't make a mental note of it? Didn't ye hack a mental note of it?

Second Roman:—It doesn't take much discipline, does it to guard a tomb?

First Roman:—It's not only guarding a tomb we are, but guarding the interests of the Roman Empire. D've think Imperal Rome is afraid of a corpse? Our great Empire fears nothing, living or dead.

Second Roman:—To preserve peace and stamp out sedition.

First Roman:—To preserve peace and stamp out sedition.

Second Roman (Firnly and rather orange of the second Roman (Firnly and rather orange).

First Roman (firnly and rather orange of the second Roman (with an irritating smile):—So the effect is an excuse for the cause?

First Roman:—There's no excuse for the cause?

First Roman:—There's no excuse for anyone objecting to law and order. Surely you don't sympathies with tilegal assemblies, seditious speeches, with blackguardism like that recent cathedriving in (fastraight of the property of the pro

Strengthen the Industrial —Arm of the Nation—

By buying products made in Ireland you help to stop Emigration.

"LEANDER" MARGARINE

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT.

Dowdall, O'Mahoney & Co., CORK.

CLADDAGH BRCOCH.

Unique Silver Brooch, with Gladdagh design in centre and two silver-mounted Connennar Marble Sharnceks at either end-price 4/9 post free.

9.—Silver Tara Brooch, with the Gladdagh design in solid silver introduced—quite a superb Brocch.

superb Streech. The superbulled of the superbulled of the superbulled of the superbulled on extra strong linea-faced paper, and printed at the foot is Hig Grace's message to Ireland. The photo is mounted on extra strong linea-faced paper, and printed at the foot is Hig Grace's message and his faceimile signature. Size Trads supplied. Sy price 1/2 post free. Trads supplied. The price strong to Dr. Trads supplied. Trads supplied to the superbulled of the supplied of the suppl ree 186.

n treland After All Unique photo showing Dr. Mannix in Ireland, neatly designed in green, white and orange. Proce 28. each—postage extra.

ather jobn Kenyen—a patriot priest of '48, by I. Fogarty, M.A.; cloth boards, 3/g post Ires.

48, by I. Fogarty, M.A.; cloth boards, 5/6 post free.

The Foggy Dew-new up-to-date version—words and music, post free, 1/2.

The Mannit. Splendid photo, 11 inches by the Mannit. Splendid facility of the Man compared works of Tom Moore—G2 large pages, pelentidired eloth binding in heavy boards—beautifully decorated in gold—very suitable for parlour table. A really handsone volume. Frice 9/6 post free, which was a suitable of the property of the post free to the property of the property of post free.

—Silver Harp, Woll-Dog and Connemarlarible Shamrock mounted on two nilver bus, in form of Brooch,

—Silver Brooch, Spik Round Tosey,

Woll-Dog, Harp and two Shamrocks, and very pretty design embosed in Silver—

sery pretty design embosed.

—Silver mounted read Can Brooch, seddagh Ring in Solid Gold, 21/r; or in Solid Silver for 5/r.

BOOKE BY BRIAN O'HIGGINS, T.D. mily to Jack. Exquisite collection of hu-morous chats. Contains a large amount of genuine Irish humour. 2/8, past free 2/16.

Glem ma Moraa. Poignant pen-picture in story and sketch of a green glem in Strinn. Irish in feging and sympathy, in kindliness and simplicity. Fell cloth binding A Childry Living to the Bush of the Strinn. Irish in the Strinn. Irish in the Strinn. A Childry Livin to the Busand Sacroment. A resulty beautiful hymn. Words by Brian O'Higgins. T.D., and music by Joseph Crofts. Price $!/-scope of the Sacred Heart. A beautiful book of religious poens. Much praised block of religious poens. Much praised block of religious poens. Much praised block of religious poens. Price $!/-scope of the Sacred Heart. A beautiful book of religious poens. June 1974. The supplies of the Sacred Heart. The Sacred Heart.

Trade Supplied.

Whelan & Son.

17 Upper Ormond Quay, Dublin

A SERIES OF

MONSTER IRISH DEMONSTRATIONS

BE HELD THROUGHOUT 8 COTLAND AS FOLLOWS:

GLASGOW—M. Andrew's Hall—Sept. 12

—3 p.m.
EDINBURGH—Usher Hall—Sept. 14—
7.45 p.m.
DUMBARTON—Borough Hall—Sept. 15.
DUNDEK—Sept. 19.

Ornamental Clocks.

Our really high-class 8-day Mantel-Piece Clocks make an exceptional orannessal addition to the parlour or drawingroom. Beautifully cased in polished Oak and Mahogany. Guaran-teed excellent timekeepers. Large selection to choose from. Prices range from £5, to £25.

GANTER BROTHERS. 63 STH. GEORGE'S ST. DUBLIN.

Irish Ireland Teachers

RE-OPENING OF SCHOOLS.

Large Stock now on hands of Intermediate and National School Books. All orders will have immediate attention.

liam Ruiséal,

an Slopa Saedealac, CORK

comás ájas TO BE DRAWN FOR-

LIFE-SIZE PORTRAIT IN OILS OF THOMAS ASHE,

In Massive Gold Frame TICKETS ... ... 6d. Each.

Book of (20) Tickets can be bad fro VINCENT O DIOMASAIGH, Run, Cumann Sinn Fein, Drogheda;

SEAGHAN MAC hENRIGH, T.C., Boyne View, Drogheda

The Drawing will take place in the Mayoralty House, Drogheda, on 30th December, 1920, under the supervision of his Worship the Mayor (Ald. P. O Maoineacháin), and Ald. J. E. Murphy, Chairman, Louth Co. Council.

GRAND PARADE Cigarettes

IRISH MADE

P. J. Carroll & Co. Ltd. DUNDALK

" Eire Og,"
204 Gt. Brunswick Street,
Dublin.

All literary communications should be addressed to The Editor. All business communications should be addressed to The Manager.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

Yearly				17/	4 post	free.
Half-yearly Quarterly				4/4	"	33
	Payable	in	advar	ice.	**

6e. Od. per inch.
5e. 9d. per inch.
5e. 6d. per inch.
5e. Od. per inch.
4s. 6d. per inch.

Chaques and postal orders should be cased, and made payable to "Eire Og."

éire ós YOUNG IRELAND

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1920.

The Lord Mayor of Cork

The Lord Mayor of Cork and his fellow-prisoners in Cork still live as we go to press, although before this issue reaches our readers, he or some other may have passed heroically away from earth to live for ever in the heart and memory of Ireland. The England that burned St. Joan of Arc at the stake, the England that hanged the Elessed Uliver Plunkett from Tyburn Tree, the England that chained Napoleon to the Rock, the England that—as one of Ita own sons said—never showed merey to a vanquished foe, nor kept a treaty when it was its interest and its power to break it, has not been as credulous people believe—supplanted by a better England. It is the same pittless England, but grown old and bereft of cunning to see that, when it shays the Lord Mayor of Cork, it will have exposed itself as the Wolf that meances the existence of all Civilisation.

Mesopotamia

At last, fragments of the truth about Mesopotamia are permitted to appear in the English Press. From these fragments, it appears, the English forces there are in a bad way—such a bad way that the English press is calling for the evacuation of the country. The truth about Mesopotamia is this r—the English to secure the support of its people in her war engaged—once the Turk had been driven out—to leave Mesopotamia free. The Turk was driven out. The English remained on. The people of Mesopotamia insisted on the contract—the principle of self-determination, they declared, must be applied. The English at length appeared to agree—they then set to work with bribery and cajolery to secure "a mandate" from the Mesopotamians for English rule to remain. They failed. What followed was kept out of the mandate" from the Mesopotamians for English rule to remain. They failed.

What followed was kept out of the English and most of the world-press. England equically refused to keep her solenn pledge and accept the decision of Mesopotamia. She arrested, imprisoned, and deported Mesopotamia as as he is acting in Ireland.
Then the Mesopotamians fell upon her, and now Mesopotamia is afame with wrath against "the perjured English". Her arraige have been impotent against the outraged people, and the story of England's hypocrisy and tyrany in Mesopotamia is adame with wrath against the buddle East against her. England's hypocrisy and tyrany in Mesopotamia is banding all the Middle East against her. England's press realises the blunder that has been committed—and is calling in panic for the evacuation of the country, which has been the grave of great empires before, and threatens to be the grave of the British Empire now, To such straits have the hypocrite and in competents who form the Government of England brought their country. Falsehood, Deceit, Trickery, and brutal violence were therefore, and the English entered Bagdad they issued, on behalf of the Government of England, a proclamation that, excited the attention of the world and was used by the England Proclamation that, excited the attention of the world and was used by the English Propaganda to outrast the dility of English sims with these of Germany. We republish it in part:—

O. PEOPLE OF BAGDAD!

Since the days of Halaka your city and your lands have been subject to the tyranny once the days of Halaka your city and your lands have been subject to the tyranny of strangers, your palaces have fallen into rules, your gardeag have sunken in desolation, and your forefathers and yourselves have greaned in bondage. Your sous have been carried off to wars not of your seeking your wealth has been stripped from you by unjust men and squandered in distant places. Since the days of Midhat the Turks have talked of reforms, yet do not the rules have talked of reforms, yet do not the rules have talked of reforms, yet do not the rules have talked of reforms, yet do not the rules have talked of reforms, yet do not the rules have talked of reforms, yet do not the rules have and wastes of to-day testify the vanity of those promises? It is the wish not only of those promises? It is the he world literature, and he past, when your lands were fertile, when your ancestors gave to the world literature, science and art, sind when Begdad City was one of the wonders of the world. It is the hope of the British Government that the one of the worders of the world. It is the hope of the British Government that the aspirations of your philosophers and writers shall be realized, and that once again the people of Bagded shall flourish, enjoying their wealth and substance under institutions which are in consonance with their sacred laws and resied ideas. Many voble Arabs have periabed in the cause of Arab freedom at the hands of those alien rulers, the Turks, who oppressed them. It is the determination of the Government of Great Britain and the Great Powers allied to Great Britain and these solds Arabs should not have suffered in vain. It is the hope and deaire of the Sritish people and the nations in alliance with them that the Arab race may the once more te greatness and renown in alliance with them that the Arab race may rise once more be greatness and renown among the peoples of the earth, and that it shall bind itself together to this end in unity and concord. People of Bagilad, remember that for 26 georegitions you have suffered under strange tyrants who have endeavoured to set one Arab bouse against another in order that they might profit by their dissensions. That policy is abbrorent to Great Britain and her allies, for there can be insulted to the profit of the profit smity and misgovernment.

The people of Mesopotamia have decisively shown that they will not suffer under the strangs tyrants from England, who have attempted and failed to set one Arab house against another in order that they might profit by their dissensions. They have not only defeated those tyrants, but they are rousing the whole Middle East of Asia against them—the fact which explains the panic in the London press and the return of a virtuous desire to set Mesopotamia free.

Salaries

Salaries

Salaries

Salaries

Schemes under the Labourers

Repears of Cottages, etc.

77,201

Payments in respect of borrowed money:

Principal paid off

109,283

Interest

Payments to other local bodies

229,273

Payments to other local bodies

Other Expenses

Solaries

64,231

Superior Grounds

7,205

Payments to respect of borrowed money:

Principal paid off

109,283

Interest

Payments to other local bodies

Other Expenses

Solaries

64,231

Separate

65,295

Less than two years ago the present Premier of England declared:—" Is is the hope and desire of the Government that the Arabic-speaking peoples who have suffered under Turkish rule should once more enjoy that tiberty which will enable them to build the edifice of civilisation and prosperity which six centuries of tyranny and misrule have brought to run and deso-lation." And in the two years that have passed this same Premier of Englation." And in the two years that have passed this same Premier of England's administration in Mesopotamia has treated the Mesopotamians who acted on his words to like villainies with those imposed on the people of Ireland.

And now the Middle East execrates the name of England, and the English in Mesopotamia are defeated and ex-posed to the world. No English Government has suc-

No English Government has succeeded in making Englands so despised and hated throughout the world as the present English Government has disner. No English Government has sever brought the British Empire so near the verge of destruction. It is the most incompetent as well as at he based. Government England has ever produced.

Local Taxation

III.—RURAL DISTRICT COUN-CILS.

The rural districts are the units of county taxation. Their total number is two hundred and ten, comprised in thirty-three administrative counties. The ordinary expenses of a county are provided by means of a rate on each rural district, known as poor-rate, which the County Council is empowered to make once a year and col-lect in two equal half-yearly instalments. The sums raised by this rate form portion of the fund from which county expenditure is defrayed, in cluding payments of the money re-quired to meet the demands of rural district councils for general expenses in connection with public health. The following are particulars of this ex-

RURAL DISTRICT COUNCILS.

Receipts from Revenue, 1919 (to March 81) Money supplied by County Councils 317,806
Rents of Labourers' Cottages ... 147,238
From Waterworks ... 12,350
Burial Fees ... 4,014

Grants in aid of roads, etc. 190 Sums received from other local bodies Other Receipts

The mount supplied by Co Councils was more than five thou in excess of the previous year.

RECEIPTS FROM LOANS.

Labourers Acts purposes Water Supply Water Supply
Sewerage
Burial Ground purposes
Under the Local Government (Allotments and Land Cultivation, Ireland, Act of 1917)
Other Receipts operating as Loans 621 29.879

Gross Total of All Receipts

The gross receipts from revents and leans in 1918 were £667.114, so that the 1919 receipts were £143,055 feas. The decline in the receipts from revenue was £1,735; the receipts from leans show a drop of £141,320. The principal cause of this is that the amount lent under the Labourers Acts was less by twenty thousand; and the amount lent for Allotments and Land Cultivation is less by one hundred and twenty thousand.

524 059

The following is an account of the expenditure from revenue:-

Salaries 64,23 Duriel Grounds 64,23 Duriel Grounds 8,40 Expenses under the Labourars IRepairs of Cottages, etc. 57,22 Expenses for Sanitary Purposes 44,30 Superannuation 2,22 Payments in respect of borrowed
Durial Grounds 8,40 Expenses under the Labourars Repairs of Cottages, etc. 57,52 Expenses for Sanitary Purposes 44,30 Superannuation 2,29	ı
Expenses under the Labourers Repairs of Cottages, etc. 57,52 Expenses for Sanitary Purposes 44,30 Superannuation 2,22	E
Repairs of Cottages, etc. 57,52 Expenses for Sanitary Purposes 44,30 Superannuation 2,22	5
Expenses for Sanitary Purposes 44,30 Superannuation 2,22	IJ
Superannuation 2,22	П
	3
Poyments in second of Lawy 1	5
a nymerica in respect of borrowed	a
money :	ı
Principal paid off 109,25	9
Interest 229,27
Payments to other local bodies . 6.58
Other Expenses 39,78

EXPENDITURE FROM LOANS. Labourers Acts purposes Water Supply

Swerage
Burial Ground Purposes
Under the Local Government
(Allotments and Land Cuktivation)
Other Purposes 552 84,877

Gross Total of all Expenditure ...

It is important to note that the item "Payments in respect of borrowed money" include the amounts paid by the Local Government Board out of the residue of the Exchequer Contribution and the Labourers Cottages Fund directly to the Commissioners of Public Works and the Irish Land Commission, respectively, and applied by these bodies towards the repayment of loans obtained by Rural District Councils under the Labourers Acts in pursuance of Section 18 (1) of the Labourers Act of 1996. The sums so applied, as shown by the accounts of the Rural District Councils, amounted to 468,262.

The cost of the upkeep of the asylums has increased by a heavy sum and the amount of money required to be furnished from the rates for hapurpose is making a heavy drain on the local public purse.

COMMITTEES OF LUNATIC ASYLUMS. Receipts for Year 1919 (to March 31).

Money supplied by County and County Borough Councils From paying patients and private 934,732 From Imperial taxes Sums received from other local Other receipts

The total gross receipts therefore just exceeded a million a year. The County Councils and Cify Growth and the growth of the gro year amounted to £901,887. The in-creased revenue, therefore, was £105,069, which has been provided by the County and County Borough Com-cils. The contribution from "Im-perial" taxes, really from Irish taxes, amounted to £13,597. The pattry in-crease of five thousand from this source has been rendered non-effective source has been rendered non-effective because there were receipts from loans for £5,100 in 1918, but there were no loans in 1919. So that the English Treasury took away with the left hand what it gave with the right.

The following was the expenditure of the past two years compared, to mark increases in the cost of upkeep, a serious matter for the payers of local rates.—

Expenditure (Year end March 31) 1919.

Provisions, necessaries and 602,542 525,190 clothing Medicines Salaries and Wages 4,973 4,422 194,698 142,869 17,341 19,027 Salaries and Wages
Superannuation Paid to Guardians for maintenance of lunatics
in workhouses
Payments in respect of borrowed money.—
Principal paid off 40,527 82,332 34,828 31,225 Other Expenses 119.576 102.792 Total Expenditure from ... 1,014,578 805,121 Total Expenditure from loans 578 6.187 Gross Total 1.015.151 871 308

The increased expenditure is £149,843. Provisions, necessaries, and clothing have increased during the year by £77,362. Salaries and wages have gone up £51,829. It is remarkable that the Lunatic Asylum Committees should have been able to increase their payments in respect of horrowed money for principal and increase their payments in respect of horrowed money for principal and interest by no less than £11,793. Other expenses are higher by £16,784. We suspect that this increase is due mainly to the cost of coal, but the report is silent on the subject of fuel. The Asylum Committees have apparently ceased to make payments to Boards of Gundians for the maintenance of function in workhouser, thus saving shren or eight thousand a year at the expense of the Guardians.

France and Ireland.

The wave of sympathy for Ireland, acco panied by a certain amount of hostility for England, that is sweeping through France at the present moment has been deeply resented by the British authorities here. It has been stated that Lord Derby, the British Ambassador, officially informed Quai D'Orsay that either he or Mr. Gavan Duffy, the Envoy of the Irish Republic. Dufy, the Envoy or the Iriso Repuole, ahould leave France. M. Milerand, learing to offend his English Ally, invited the Irish representative, with all diplomatic formalities, to absent himself from Paris. The "Temps" to-night, in a semi-official communique, throws the onus for this measure on the shoulders of the British Government and insinuates that it would be time enough to act when the Government of the United States had taken the lead, a thing which, of course, one cannot envisage. According to the journal in question the French Government endeavoured to avoid giving publicity to Mr. Gavan Duffy's departure, but an English propaganda organ published in Paris, acting on the instructions of Downing Street, made the matter public. However, the present French authorities may seem apologetical or ashamed of this act, every lover of liberty can only have a profound contempt for the obsequious fashion in which it submits to the dictation

The following letter from M. Louis Martin, Senator, appeared in the "Petit

The Lord Mayor of Cork, M. MacSwiney, is slowly dying in prison a martyr to the Irish cause. All that is civilised in the world, and in an immense crunisea in the world, and in an immense crunisea in the world, and in an immense number of English people, revolts at this spectacle. We, French people, cannor forget the unalterable fidelity of Ireland, as strested by her history, and in the great war she furnished brilliant proofs to which we cannot remain indifferent.

"Parmell sacrificed for Ireland, and the number of unfilled promises, are fresh in our memory. Allow me through the colums of the 'Petit Var' to address my profound, and the property of the property perhaps, and to tell those English who have raised their voices in his favour that they have defended the holy cause of humanity. "We only interfere with the greatest circumspection in the internal affairs of a foreign country," asys "La Libre Parole," "but who dares pretend that Irish affairs are the sole concern of England. Has not every human being the world over heard the concern of England, on her knees by the property of pain from Ireland, on her knees by the property human being the world over heard the concern of England. Has not every human being the world over heard the concern of England, on the knees of the concern of England, and the concern of England. It is, hither on the concern of England, It is, hither of the concern of the part of the concern of the part of the concern of England. It is, hither of the concern of the concern of the part of the concern of the concern of the part of the concern of the in the name of reason we should kill him. England crucifies the Irish people who are guilty only of refusing to partake of the glories of her Empire. Seven centuries of history has convinced them that they cannot count on her generosity. The world as we know it is only composed of cash deaks, but, even so are we going to suppress our scorn for the torturer and our admiration for those marryrs of an ideal. Was there anything nobler in the sanguinary history of the Coliseum, or was Scavele greater than MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cark."

"It is in vain that politics and other interests try to smother the cry of anguish and the protestation of Ireland," says "Nouvelles" of Algiers, "That country asks for the execution of a solemn promise. She deserves her independence. She desarves her the application of the great principle proclaimed by the Entente, of the right of peoples to govern themselves. Thousands of Irishmen have fought in our ranks for the cause of Right and Justice. To-day they sak payment for their sacrifices and invoke
Right and Justice for which so many of them died under foreign flags. But to-day they
sak payment for their sacrifices and invoke
right and Justice for which so many of them
died under foreign flags. But to-day they
sak payment for their sacrifices and invoke
the gipt and justice for which so many of them died under foreign flags. But to-day they sak payment for their sacrifices to the tribute of the tribute of the tribute of the tribute of the
the tribute of the tribute of the
tribute of the tribute of the
tribute of the tribute of the
tribute of the tribute of the
tribute of the tribute of the trib 'It is in vain that politics and other in nim to be assassinated also. No, we shall not remain silent before such a crime. We do not wish that the blood of the just should fall on our heads."

"La Lanterne," a Freemason organ, in a feating article says, "A score of nations said to be civilised, united at Versailles to proclaim according to the gospel of Wilson, the right of peoples to Self-determination. This great Council recognised the nations that the said of the council recognised the nations that the said of the council recognised the nations that the said of the council recognised the nations to the the said of the council recognised the nations to the large of the council recognised the nations to the large of the council recognised the nations to the large of the council recognised the said of the council recognised the large of the council recognised the large of the large of the council recognised the large of the large honest men."

"In France," says "Silhouettes "In France," says "Silhouettes Havraises," "see begin to speak about Ireland,
If politics be national or international it will always be the weather cock that turns to every breeze, and there are people who adore to-day what they burned yesterday,
although they admired it the day before.
To-day, as always, we return to our first love and address all our sympathies to Ireland. We hope she will profit by the movesuem in her favour that is developing all the world over to free herself from English domination, The attitude of England towards Poland autonishes us, but this attitude is the world over to free herself from English domination. The attitude of England towards Poland astonishes us, but this attitude is the corollory of that which she practises in Ireland. In delivering Poland she demonstrates that she was wrong in imprisoning Ireland, but her one object is to profit by everything and everybody in order to increase her sway throughout the world. France has paid dear for this knowledge."

"There is a man dying for the liberty of Ireland," says "Le Merle Blanc,: "and France is silent. Is it because Lloyd-George is able to keep your feet cold this winter that you have allowed him to commit this abomination. Is it, I ask, a question of coal? The paternal renderness of France has passed Ireland is in all our hearts, yet, MacSwiney dies and you have done nothing to save him. You are able to save him, critizens. England is afraid of you. Like Christmas pudding that is one of The tradictive that the property of the propert

NOTAL

Dfuirmig Fresnel dlithe na scáthántul-ochta (reflection) agus do deimhnigheadh iad le tréaileacha ché fada's do béidir a iad le tréaileacha ché fada's do béidir a dheunamh amach, ach taréis tuille cuardaig as seeui fuaradh ná rabhar fíor ar fad. Brathadh nithe eile sa sceul nár thug Fresante lé ndear agus do ceartuigheadh an teoiric. Mara mbeadh an teoiric Mara mbeadh an teoiric Mara mbeadh an teoiric famh, níbhluighlí amach cúis na nithe eile sin. Sa cheartí, ámh, níor loiteadh an teoiric. Tá againn fós díreach mar a bhí si ar dtúis chó fada's théan na nithe bunaidh atá intich dá uise díreach mar a bhí sa ra dtúis chó fada's théan na nithe bunaidh atá intich dá uise díreach mar ní túrfí fé ndears an bhaint a bhí ag na nithe sin lens chéile. Is líor an rud aduaradh, fadó: dá mbeadh chuist a bhí ag na nithe sin lens chéile. Is líor an rud aduaradh, fadó: dá mbeadh chuist díreach má Newton againn na chuiste fach. Mi-fiarritiin d'eoluíocht teacht deunach ar an saol nuair atá diritisí teacht deunach ar an saol nuair atá diritisí si neadhoin na heoluíochta ró-bheacht. Mistin atá a sceul ag ag gceimíocht thisic-natá a sceul ag ag gceimíocht thisic-natá a sceul ag ag gceimíocht thisicsin atá an sceul ag an gceimíocht fhisic-each. Ní féidir do lucht a bunuithe leathan each. Ní féidir do lucht a bunuithe leathan
—radharc fháil ar an scéim go léir agus na príomh-dhlithe bhainean léi do chumadh toisc na deichmhacha (decimals) bheith róthuairim gurb uiriste a bri generalta et uisigint agus mar sin nách gá dhom sui na bpuíntí móra ann do chur síos ans Scuirfad de go ceann tamaill pé sceul agus taraingeod rud eile chugam.

Tá mórán teurmaí mus agus cainteans nus Tă môrăn teurmai mu agus cainteana nua sa méld atât agum â ser naso le tamall maith. As an nGaedhilg féin a bhaineas furnhór na deturmai, sé sin, do chuireas Gaedhilg ar tach siolla desas focail Laidne agus Ghréigies, each amháin i gaés na bhíocal gur bhain atharú brí dhóibh le linn iaid do ghliaca isteach sa Bheurlia. Níor ghlecas aon fhocal isteach ón mBeurla, ach nó Gréigise do ghlacadh agus crot Gaelach do chur air. Chifar uaidh sin nár thréigeas do chur air. Chifer uaidh sin mér thréigeas nós ar sinsear agus, go deimin, ní dó jiom go ndeaghas leath chó fada is théidis sin ag glaca focal iaschta é acht cheagain. Pé cuma in ar ceanadh na tiurnal is dócha go ndeurfidh an gndhléthóir gur deallrathach le carraigeacha móra garbha jad, Ní leigheas gamsa air in the cama gineth ta si in ar theournaí nách mór i gcomhnu i ar drisi. Má fhanadí siad sa teangain líomhfar iad i mbeulaibh daoine agus as deire bedí siad chó mín agus chó háluinn le haon fhocal dá bhfuil inti le míle blian-tha súil agun go mbedí siad i bhíad níos binne ná cuid desna focail iasachta atá glacuithe chécha ag cuid desna pidraistí mar thocail ghlam-Ghaechiláe.

Ní hi dteurmaí do cheasa nó do ghlaca ó theanghacha iasachta atá deacracht an scéil dúim, ann atha sa cheartacht an scéil dúim, ann atha sa cheartacht an scéil dúim, ann atha sa níthe deacracht an fhairm agus na cainteana iasachta do Ghneid íocal ar fhocal fó mar a dheineadh selsean go mínic. Ag trácht ar fhealladh-scht agus ar tirriocht deindí lucht gach teangan gnáth-abairtí d'úsáid ar mhodh fé leith. Ní mór dáinn tomá air sin seh ar eagla go gcumfimís ar an gcuma san beur-lagar ná tuigladh duine ar bit ní mór dúin an obair do dheunamh diaidh ar náisidh: uain do shiúrt do dhaoine chun taith mhaith a bheith acu ar roinnt bheas abairtí a casfí as a ngnáth-chuirs as ar adeuntí an cleas a ngnáth-chuirs as ar adeuntí an cleas as a ngnáth-chúrsa sara ndeunfí a cleas ceudna ar roinnt eile. Tá mórán cainteana in dsáid againn anois i dtionólaibh comh-altaisí, etc, ná tuigfí in aon chor deich mbliana ó shoin.

mbliana ó shoin.

Dá mhéid den obair seo atá ar siúl níl leath ár nádóthana againn de. Mara mbrostuímíd ní bheidh an Ghaedhilig chó suasnchun-dáta is atá an Bearla anois go ceann míle blian. Sé rud lé ndeár an righneas ná gan an obair a bheith á dheunamh do réir phlean agus 16s gan tora oibre gach scríbhneoirí gan puinn trioblóide. Ní mór dáinn ar dtisí focláir maith Beurla-Gaechilige agus gach focal teignidhe dá bhfuil sa Ghaechilig ann, pe acu indé nó míle blian ó shoin do ceapadh d, asus ansan aguisín a chur anach o ceannach d, asus ansan aguisín a chur anach na choidr in agus gach burna nua is abairt nua coluíochta nó feallsúnachta, etc. (darceapadh i rith na bliana) do bheith ann, Ba chóir do Chumann na Scríbhneoirí aghaidh a thúirt ar an ní sin. Mara méaidh an focláir sin againn ní bheidh puinn teacht le chéile idir na daoine a chuirfú siad agus each suirifú siad agus chéile idir na daoine a chuirfú siad agus chéile aidir na daoine a chuirfú siad agus chéile aidir na daoine a chuirfú siad agus chéile idir na daoine a chuirfú siad agus cheile idir na daoine a chuirfú siad agus chéile idir na daoine a chuirfú siad agus cheile idir na agus cheile idir na chuir fú siad agus chuir na chuir na

I dteannta an fhoclóra níor mhór an plean i dreo ná beadh cuid againn ag duí ró-fhada amach ar fad (mar atáinse béidir), ag trácht ar níthe ná fuil an Ghaedhig ábatha a dóthin fós chun deighleáil teo. Do réir an phlean san, ba chóir go diochí suas leis na níthe ais deacara i ndiadh a chéile. Ean aon obair a dheunamh an cheud bhliain ach obair heudidh an an cheud bhliain ach obair heudidh an gnáth-scríbhneoir a dbeunamh dona na hchinn a phleuscadh. Gan aon dabh ta chóir beagán deacarachta a bheith ag baint lei an doair a toff le deunamh donas scríbhneoirí is cliste. Ba cheart iad san scríbhneoirí is cliste.

a bheith ina réadóirí (pioneers) don chuid eile, agus obair a bhainfadh is dtaobh a dheacarachta) leis an tarna nó an triú) bliain den chóras do dheunamh an cheud bhliain, i dtro, nuair a hiocrádh an tarna bliain, gurbh uiriste dosna scríbhneoirí eile a lorg do leanúint. Bheadh idir réadóir agus lucht leanúina gloghluim i gcomhnuí mar is as an obair a fachtar an fhoghluim. Bheadh cur-le-chéile agus leanúint-as-a-chéile ina ithieid de phlear—dosna lethóirí chó maith leis na scríbhneoirí—agus i gceann deich mblian nó chéig, mblian ndeag measaim 20 mbeadh ar chumas an ghnáth-scríbhneora Gaedhilg a chur a aon snaoineamh dár smaoineadh riamh, agus san chó soiléir sin nár dheacair don ghnáth-lethóir dhea-fuirth-auss é thuisg-int. I gceann chúig mblian ná deirim ná go mbeadh leagha mach againn go daingean na prinsiobail in a bhfásfadh an Ghaechtig dá réir ní hea, ach is amhlaidh a bheadh na prínsiobail sin éirithe suas chugáinn as an obair a bhead deuna Mar ní do céir ma s a bheith ina réadóirí (pioneers) don chuid prínsiobail sin éirithe suas chugainn as an obair a bheadh deunta. Mar ní do réir mar is maith linne a fhásan teanga ach do réir mar is maith léi féin agus san dár n-aindeoin pe aca piúraistí sinn nó a malairt.
TADGH O CIANÁIN.

Self-Determination

HOW IRELAND LED THE WORLD.

The first record of a mandate of independence granted by a powerful nation to a subject race dates from the Convention of Drumcat, held in Derry about the year 590, and was the gift of the Irish people to their Scotch colony. It is a goodly heritage for us who stand in the fighting line for Ire-land to-day to remember that when we as a nation had it in our absolute power to continue to hold the unwillmore when it was entirely to our material advantage to do so—that we replied to their first demand for in-material advantage to do so—that we replied to their first demand for independence neither by a refusal nor by any act of war, but by inviting them to a National Conference to discuss their claims.

St. Columcille came with the Scotch colonists from Scotland to be their alternative and the state of the delegation, and opposite him Aodh, son of Ainmore, High King of Ireland surrounded by the provincial Kings and Hereditary Princes of Ireland with their Courts, among whom were Crounktham Cearr, King of Leinster, Tollann, son of Scannlan, son of Grandlan, son of Grandlan, son of Aodh Beannain, King of West More and Aodh Beannain, King of West More and Ring of all Munster; Criomhtham Backing of Clann Fischrach, South and North; Raghallach, son of Uadaidh, who was King of Tuatha Taidhion and of Breithfae Ui Ruair as far as Cliabham Modhairi; Ceallach, son of Cearnach, son of Dubacking of Harding and Chann Fischrach, Son of Cearnach, son of Dubacking of Breithfae Ui Raghallaigh; Conghalach Chinn Maghair, King of Tir Chonail; the two Kings of Dirghall, to with the West of the Modham Chandland, and the West of the Boinn and very many other princes and nobles of Ireland. The result of the Boinn and very many other princes and nobles of Ireland. The result of the Conference which, in the discussion of this and other National matters, lasted for 14 months, was, as already indicated, the grant of complete independence to the Scottish King and colony, and the two kingdoms thereupon entered into a solemn covenant to be allies and friends for all time.

The Circumstances under which the great Convention came into being are open the second of the Cotton of the Cotton of the Cotton of the Ambra and Comparison of the available authorities the following facts are clearly extablished.

First with regard to the history of the Scotto Dal Raidan colony it is stated in the preface to the Ambra Magee's and Columcille's lives differing considerably in their accounts. From a careful perusal, however, and ormparison of the available authorities the following facts are clearly extablished.

First with regard to the history of the Scotto Dal Raidan colony it is stated in the preface to the Ambra Magee

the men of Alba and the men of Erin; because they were both of the race of Cairbre Rightfad, that is, of the men of Cairbre Rightfad, that is, of the men of Munster. For upon the occasion of a great famile which came upon Munstern and the secondaries of Cairbre Rightfad at the secondaries of Cairbre Rightfad at the secondaries of them went of Alba, and the other party staid in Erin, From They took the Dairsida at this day. They took the Dairsida at this day. They took the Dairsida at this day. They took the Dairsida at this day and of Aedha Mac Galbrain, King of Alba, and of Aedha Mac Galbrain, King of Alba, and of Aedh Mac Galbrain, King of Alba, and of Aedh Mac Ainmore, King of Erin. And a coutset where we were the three that was one of the three causes for which Columeille came to Erin, too make peace between the men of Erin Erin, from whom are the Dairiada at When be came to the meeting Colman, son of Congellan, accompanied him, and Colman was requested to give judgment between the men or Eria and Alba."

The time when these Irish colonists went into Scotland is estimated.

man, son of Congelian, accompanied him, and Colman was requested to give judgment between the men or Eria and Alba.

The time when these Irish colonists went into Scotland is estimated about A.D. 506, and with them went soma of the family of Eire, son of Munreambar, from the country now the sound of the family of Eire, son of Munreambar, from the country now and the sound of the family of Eire, son of Munreambar, from the country now the sound of the family of Eire, son of Munreambar, from the country now the sound of the family of Eire, son of Munreambar, from the country now the country now the sound of the family of the things of the sound of t come from the East, Dal Riada to canterian them, whether few or many; and the Dal Reada to convey them on if they require it."

King Aedhan, for whose independence the Irish national saint fought so hard, was one of the first kings of whose anointing there is any record, and he was anointed by St. Columcille whose anointing there is any record, and he was anointed by St. Columcille himself, who, as Abbot of Iona and first bringer of the Faith to Scotland, took precedence of all Scotlish Bishops. St. Columcille was apparently an ardent advocate for the independence of nations, and according to Father D'Alton's History of Ireland "The Abbot knew the difficulties with which he (Aedhan) was surrounded in him Caledonian possessions, that he was encompassed by powerful enemies—the Northern and Southern Picts—and that against these enemies he could never make headway if kept in a position of dependence and tutelage, hampered by a yearly tribute to the Irish King ... His arguments—see convincing, his influence with the Convention was great, and his views prevailed. Aidan was declared independent and head his people on their side undertook to be always the land as the American Cole in the Irish King ... His arguments—see the State of the Irish Konarch. The Colonists were the same to Ire Land as the American Cole were always the Convention. "Sa strong and wanted independence which the Irish resisted because of loss of money and prestige."

Irih resisted because of loss of money and prestige."

The site of the great Convention The site of the great Convention was on the banks of the Roe in Derry and was either the long mound sometimes called the Daisy Hill or Mullegh, or in the till on the exposite aide to the Mullegh, called Enagh, a word which in ancient days meant a political assembly. It is certain that all the sides of the hill were covered with the white tents of the Royal and ecclesiastical members of the Conference, of whom St. Columcille brought, with him 140, including 20 Bishops. And it was the last of the great National Assemblies of the kind to be held in Ireland.

Rockwell College

CASHEL

WILL RE-OPEN SEPTEMBER 6th.

For Terms, etc., apply
THE PRESIDENT

ALL HALLOWS COLLEGE, DUBLIN.

Re-opens on Friday, September 17th, 920. All students return on that day. The Entrance Examinations for freshmen take place on Thursday, September 16th, commencing at 9 o'c, a.m. Candidates come to the College the previous (Wednesday) evening.
For Prospectus apply to:-

THE PRESIDENT.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE, DUBLIN (A CONSTITUENT COLLEGE OF THE NATIONA UNIVERSITY OF IRELAND).

SESSION 1920-21.

Estrance Scholarships Examinations and Scholarships to the Faculty of Medicine, October 5th, 1920. Introductory Course in Medicine (tooluding Dentistry), October 5th, 1920.

Lectures in Arts, Science, Medicine, Dentistry, Engineering and Architecture, and Commerce, October 11th, 1920.

Lectures 16 Atts, Schmer ombone, Grobber 1th, 180: an and Architecture, and Commerce 5th, 180: Apply in the College, Earthort Terrase, or the School Apply in the College, Earthort Terrase, or the School Apply in the College, Dablis, the Regardions as URSULINE CONVENT, SLICO. University Echolarships (24 oron in last two years), Intermediate, Bank, 180: Apply in the Convent, 180: Apply in the Convent of the Properties of the Residential School of Domestic Science Attached.

TO CONVENT, MULLINGAR.
BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

SCHOOL RE-OPENS WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8th. For Terms apply to a SUPERIORESS.

> ST. KIERAN'S COLLEGE, KILKENNY.

Re-opens on Tuesday, 7th September. For Prospectus, etc., apply to THE PRESIDENT

KNOCKBEC LAY COLLEGE.

CARLOW
(Original Foundation, 1793).

Index the immediate Patronage of His Lordship, the Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin.

Leighlin.

The College is situated three miles from Carlow on a richly wooded site overlooking the Barrow. It is furnished with all modern equipment. At the Intermediate Examinations, 1919, this College obtained first places in Ireland In Irish, it Irish Composition and Applied Mathematics, as well as getting two First and a Second in County Council University Scholarships.

COLLEGE BE ORDEN ESPERMED F.

COLLEGE RE-OPENS SEPTEMBER 7. Examination for Entrance Scholarships, varying in value from £10 to £40, on September 8th.

For Prospectus and Scholarship Scheme

THE RECTOR.

Gold and Silver Medals, Tara Brooches, &c.

AS MADE FOR CAELIC LEAGUE AND C.A.A. BRANCHES ALL OVER THE :: COUNTRY. ::

CORK

WARPIPES

Our prices WARPIPES, Best quality finish, Half-mounted in nickel-silver 2 Drones 2 Drones—£6 10s. 6d.
3 Drones—
£7 10s. 0d.
Mounted in Galalith, real
Ivory, Ivory
and Silver,
extra,

extra.
Postage and packing, 2/6.

M'Cullough

26 Parliament St. DUBLIN.

8 HOWARD ST., BELFAST.

M. ROCHE, Watchmaker, Jeweller, Silversm and Optician, 60 PATRICK STREET CORK.

Engagement and Wedding Rings, Watches, Jewellery, Clocks, Wedding Presents, Sports Prizes. Watch and Jewellery Repairs a Speciality.

STATIONERY, :: RELIGIOUS BOOKS. :: COODS.

John Kiylehan

2 O'Connell St., LIMERICK.

P. Conway & Co.
Tobacconists,
31 Exchequer St. Dubliu.

W. K. CAHILL

22 DAWSON STREET, DUBLIN.

PHELAN BROS.-FIRST CREAT SALE Began Friday, July 30th, and will run throughout the month of August.

A Great Opportunity of securing

Genuine Bargains in IRISH-MANUFACTURED COODS.

PHELAN BROS., THE GREAT IRISH HOUSE, GEORGE'S ST., WATERFORD.

Luke Burke

IRISH-MADE SHIRTS, UNDERWEAR, SOCKS, TIES, COLLARS, BRACES, ETC. AT LOWEST CASH PRICES.

105 Patrick St., Cork.

Have your Hair-Cutting, Shaving, and Toilet Wants attended to by

JAMES MALLON
The Official Frongoch Barber.
30 EDEN QY. (neaf Liberty Hall), DUBLIN.
Old and New Comrades always welcome.

"RAIMAO" SAFETY RAZORS,
"With three genuine Gillette Blades.
"See Foot free 3/6."
EEMMAN GROWN AND SWOOD RAZORS,
"15 5/6 post free."
RAINSFORD & MONULTY,
CUTLERS AND TOOL MERCHANTS, 5 Capel Street (near Bridge). DUBLIN.

O'NEILL'S

IRISH BUTTER, BACON AND HAMS

60 UPPER DORSET STREET, DUBLIN.

An Jaedeal Comluct Taisoe um unhadar naimunta, Teo The Irish National Assurance Company, Limited The only Irish Life and General Insurance Company controlled and staffed by Irishanders,

Irish Irianders,
Transacta Life, Endowment, Fire, Accident, Live Stock, Motor Car, Sickness, Plate Glass, Burglary (Private Houses) and other Insurances.
ASSETS over £00,000. Claims Paid, £5,000. and other Insurances.
£20,000 invested in Irish Trustee Stocks as Security for the LIFE POLICY HOLDERS.

HOLDERS.

We guarantee that all our Funds will be INVESTED IN IRELAND and used to promote IRISH ENTERPRISE.

Engretic Gaedhesh can built up a Remunerative and Permanent Livelihood as Jrish National Agents. Write to us immediately.

ARD OIFIG (Head Office), 30 COLLEGE GREEN, DUBLIN.

Despite the storms our Superintendents—Seuma Byson (late of Wormwood Scrubbs hunger strike), and Ray federac—are custing foreign internace.
They need additional Agents in the city and throughout Antrim, BELFAST OFFICE—45 DIVIS STREET.

a saeceala beut reinspe cabruisio leo-san,

AS WE HAVE SAID BEFORE-" TALK IS CHEAP!"

Cycles to the value of £250,000 have been imported into Ireland this year!

HAVE YOU HELPED THIS IMPORTATION?

If so, we would be glad to hear your reason, as we claim that

LUCANIA

THE CYCLE with the IRISH TRADE MARK—is AT LEAST AS GOOD VALUE as any other.

JOHN O'NEILL, LTD.

LUCANIA WORKS, PLEASANTS STREET, DUBLIN. ARTAN CLOTHING FACTORY

BLACKPOOL, CORK. Office and Showrooms-56 Grand Parade, CORK.

Manufacturers of High-class Ladies' Un-

Ask your Draper for the "Artan Brand."

CYCLISTS

ANYTHING YOU WANT I CAN SUPPLY.

My prices are right. Secondhand Cycles from £5/10 to £8/10. From wheels, 16/6. Bert wheels, 19/6. Covers, 87. Tubes, 6, 4/6, 15/4. Superson the free wheels, 19/6. Covers, 87. Modern, 16/6. Bert with the superson free wheels, 16/6. Modern, 4/6 pair, Chain, all sizes, 10/6. GRAMOPHONES from £5/10 to £11. RECORDS, double sided, 3/. Needles, 200 for 18.

T. NEESON, Cycle and Gramophone Factor, 184 NORTH KING STREET, DUBLIN.

J. Berney

-DENTAL SURGERY-

33 Westmoreland St., Dublin.

IRISH-MADE GOODS. For Men's Shirts, Hosiery, Caps, Eto.

páopais ó hallmunain diri tram 10, tumment

SIOPA NA nGAEDHEAL.

For Footballs, 16/6, 18/6, 21/-, and 25/-, Football Boots, 19/6 and 28/6. Jerseys, Knickers, Camans, 4/6, 5/6, and 6/6. Gengs, 2/6 and 3/6. Hurley Balls, 4/6, and 6/6. Mouth Organs (German), 1/2/6, 3/6, 4/6, 5/6, and 7/6. Melodeons.

Clinch & Glesson, Stationers, Tobacconists, and Income Tax Experts, Church View, Navan

McDowell PROTHERS. Established 1845

145.61. RELIABLE ALARM CLOCKS

Postage 6d.

27 HENRY STREET and 10 STH. GT. GEORGE'S ST., DUBLIN.

BOOKS published in or relating to Ireland, including all Gaelic League publications. Also a large assortment of the best English Fiction.

Also a large assortment of the best English Fiction.

Fiction of the property of the property

Dowling and McGuinness

Wholesale and Retail Booksellers, Stationers, and Tobacconists, 1 NORTH FREDERICK ST. and

M'QUILLAN'S

Special offer to readers of "Bire Og."

German hollow-ground Razor, "The Orba," fully warranted.
Good Strop, bright fittings and canvas back.
Stick McClinton's Shaving Soap. THE LOT 9/- Post Free

McQuillan.

Tool Merchant and Cutler. 35/36 CAPEL STREET, DUBLIN

Patrick Mahon

National Printer

-DUBLIN-

Phone 603.

M. CAHILL.

Ecclesiastical Warehouse, PARLIAMENT STREET, DUBLIN. BLESSED OLIVER PLUNKET Beautiful coloured pictures entirely produced in Dublin
2s. post free. 18s. per dozen.
Busts of same at 10s. each.

THE IRISH TWEED HOUSE.

We have the largest variety of Indigo Bline Serges, Irish Treeck, and Irish Overcoating Serges, Irish Treeck, and Irish Overcoating in Ireland. Suits made to order by expect cut-ters and Irish Labour exclusively. Patterns and Irish Labour exclusively. Patterns are grant of the Irish Irish Irish Irish 4 CAPEL ST., DUBLIN (Mr. Grattan Bridgs) and KINGSTOWN

JOHN NELIGAN, Proprietor. ns—Cash. All Classes of Work Made to Order.

WILLIAM O'DEA, WICKER FURNITURE AND

BASKET MANFACTURER 34 PARNELL STREET, DUBLIN. Repairs neatly executed. Estimates free

McKEOWN, MacKEOGH & CO.,

uctioneers, Valuators, Cattle, heep, and Pig Salesmen, Farm 1 Produce Factors, &c., 11 4 HAYMARKET, DUBLIN.

Office, 'Phone No. 3; Lairs, 'Phone 2059. Wires: Office, "Factors, Dublin." Lairs, "Sheep, Dublin."

PREPAID ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements under this head are charged for at the rate of 1d. per word; minimum, 1/*.

SITUATIONS VACANT.

mûnreöir.

Ceaptwigean mûnreöir.

Ceaptwigean mênecon pacotigo ô tuce
Connapia na Spointige in-de tuan. Soobare
connapia na Spointige in-de tuan. Soobare na hi-appea 600 appeab bisaña. Ceaptean na hi-appea 600 appeab bisaña. Soolubariga o h-aouta cuapia, de tuan, nomi an 3000 ti us mortoan an 955/sist.

PHARMACEUTTGAL Chemist require
Apply, Karr, Ishemat, Closen

SITUATIONS WANTED.

EMPLOYMENT as Clerk or Book-keeper required by dismissed Teacher, victimiseder on pelitical grounds. Particulars on offer would take any suitable light work. "Eira" this office.

this office.

YOUNG LADY, well educated, fluent Iriab
speaker, fully qualified book-keeper, having 34 years' practical experience in merchant office wishes to hear of vacancy in Dublin or good provincial town. Apply, A68, "Eire Og."

MISCELLANEOUS.

AGENCIES Wanted by energetic Irish-Irielander in Groceries, Tobaccos, etc. Irish Manufacture, Commission basis, Apply AGT "Eire Og." OH. COATES' EMBRICCATION (Irish-made), Trade Mark, BOALD.

COMFORTABLE Apartments offered at 4 Whitworth Place, Drumcondra. Partial or full board.

VIOLIN LESSONS given. Terms, apply Cormac McGinley, 18 Ovoca Rd., Dublin. Oll. THANKSGIVING.

IN THANKSGIVING to St. Anthony for favour received. Publication delayed.

THANKSGIVING to Sacred Heart, Onr Lady, Little Flower, Poor Souls, for favours received. P. O'R.

favours received. P. O'R.

pósao.

finceOláRmado y rik an Deace—poreo émonn filas Diagmado agur þrýgu rik an Deaca Li fyleit máre mór, 1920., treach pobel Hadin Columnelle i irDoire an Bernard már Belan Licegan Colarge columnelle már Belan Licegan Colarge
agur a leig arpeann an pórca
Sgendig
ADERMOTI and M'YEIGH-August 15th,
1920, at St. Columb's, Long Tower, Derry, Eamonn MacDermott to Delia M'Veight, with Nuptial Mass and marriage ceremony in Irsh, by the Rev. John M'Shane, President, St. Columb's College, Derry, Cutifne.

consents, St. Volumb's College, Derry, College, Derry, College, Carthine, Califfrie, Cal

Chaob na 5Cúi5 5Cúi5í. Classes Re-Open Monday, September 20th, Under the Very Best Teachers.

SPECIAL FEATURE—AFTERNOON :: PHRASE METHOD CLASS. :: Write for Prospectus to Hon. Sec., 19 Ely Place.

ELTIC CHOCOLATE

Buy one tablet of Celtic Bur one tablet of Celtic Chocolate because it is Irish. Make that a test. If you do not find it the nicest, most deliciously-flavoured Chocolate you have ever tasted, don't buy it again. The Celtic flavour clings to the palate.

MAXWELL LEMON.

High-class Confections

22 NASSAU STREET, DUBLIN.

WHOLESALE ACENTS.

Dublin:
Mesars. Eason, Middle Abbey St., and Belfast. Messrs. Dawson and Son, 5 and 6 Molesworth Place, Molesworth St.

Mesars. C. Porter and Co., 123 and 125 Old Lodge Road.

Mesers, Séan O Cuill and Co., 95 Patrick Street. Messrs. News Bros., 20 Bowing Green Street.

Traice:
E. O'Connor, 42 Ashe Street. Peter Murphy, 13 Scotland Place

Printed by Patrick Mahon, 3 Yarnhall St., Dublin, and published by the Proprietors, at their Offices, 204 Gt. Brunswick Street, Dublin,