ARD-FHEIS SINN FÉIN

Tionólfar Ard-Fheis Sinn Féin i Halla na Saoirse, Baile Átha Cliath, ag an deireadh seachtaine.

The Caretaker Executive appointed by the adjourned Ard-Fheis of Sinn Féin in the Kevin Barry Hall, Dublin on January 11 last has called an Ard-Fheis. It will be held in Liberty Hall, Dublin on Saturday and Sunday next, October 24 and 25.

A large attendance is expected. The Six-County representation is expected to be the largest since 1925. An extended public session is being held this year, at which an address will be delivered by the Chairman of the Caretaker Executive, Ruairí Ó Brádaigh. A President, Officer Board and Ard-Chomhairle will be elected and the title "Caretaker" dropped.

It is hoped that following this Ard-Fheis the news media will recognise which organisation is the true Sinn Féin, upholding the Constitution of the organisation and having the allegiance of the vast majority of Republicans.

You are invited to send reporters and photographers to the public session on Sunday at 14.00 - 18.00 hours. Beidh fáilte rómpu.
