

JOIN NA FIANNA EIREANN

For 800 years, Ireland has been unfree. Ireland unfree shall never be at peace. Looking back, we can recall Irish resistance to foreign rule in great events like the Battle of Kinsale, the 1798 rebellion, the 1867 Fenian Rising, 1916, the War of Independence right through to the last 12 years of struggle for freedom. The republican ideal is to replace injustice, repression and sectarianism, with peace, justice, freedom and non-sectarianism. In the New Ireland, all will be equal and without the right to exploit our fellow Irishmen and women.

These can be achieved through the Republican cause. But as a first step we must rid our land of the Brits, who are responsible for our troubles. And there is, needless to say, no point in looking for direction to an Irish Government, who are gaining from partition.

Na Fianna Eireann is a Republican scouting organisation. It was formed in 1909, by Countess Markievicz, to train the youth of Ireland for their part in the struggle for freedom. Fianna played a vital role in 1916, and since then in the War of Independence, the Civil War and in every campaign since.

Today Fianna encourages youth to follow Republican ideals, to love their country and its culture and to engage in scouting activities. Youth involvement in Fianna means youth can have a say in what Eire Nua holds for them. With over 50% of Ireland's population under 25, this is even more important. The youth of today are the leaders of tomorrow.

Over the last couple of months youth have seen a splendid example of the naked contempt Britain holds for any Irish person who dares to resist her rule. Will H-block be the turning point in Irish history? LETS UNITE AND DRIVE THE BRITS HOME.

Brave young Gaels lost their lives this year in pursuance of 5 just and basic demands. We must continue to give them our full support.

It must not be forgotten they died in the same struggle which claimed the lives of Emmet, Tone, Rossa and the men of 1916. Love of their country and its people led them to make this the ultimate sacrifice.

Finally remember the future of Ireland lies in the hands of the youth of Ireland. Secure the future of a free Ireland. Join the Fianna, come along any Wednesday night at 8.00 pm and talk to us at 44 Parnell Square.
