WE MUST RAISE £500 IMMEDIATELY!

EOLAS is now in its third year of publication. Interviews with the leadership of the Republican Movement have been featured exclusively and translated into many foreign languages in the subsequent distribution of EOLAS abroad. The July-August issue of EOLAS features an in depth analysis of the Ultra-left in Ireland today.

The publication of EOLAS costs money and has suffered the increases in the cost of paper, postage and printing. In order to meet these rising costs, we must have your help. £500 would keep EOLAS in print for a good few months and we need your help in raising this amount.

We recognise that progress towards our ultimate objective will not be along an easy road. We recognise that it may be slow. But we are determined to fight on all fronts for its achievement. We are determined to defend the gains that we have made. We are determined to use all of the weapons at our disposal - all of the forces at our command - to secure the full freedom of every citizen of our country and the liberation of every ounce of our resources, every inch of our soil.

We have always considered ourselves, comrades, not as an isolated group in a small country but as part of a world-wide movement of national liberation.

It is in this spirit of solidarity that we ask you to continue supporting the aims and objectives of the Republican Movement, ACTIVELY, by sending a donation to the FIGHTING FUND today! All gifts will be receipted.
