

"Nor Saint nor King has tomb so proud,
As he whose flag becomes his shroud."

In Loving Memory of Commandant Pat Allman,

KILLARNEY BATTALION, I.R.A.

Who died as a result of Wounds received during the Civil War,

On the 22nd JANUARY, 1927,

AGED 25 Years.

R.I.P.

"For it were better for us to die in battle than to behold the ills of our Nation."— 1 Machabees iii. 59.

I do not grudge them, Lord, I do not grudge
My two strong sons that I have seen go out To break their strength and die, they and a few,

In bloody protest for a glorious thing.
They shall be spoken of among their people
The generations shall remember them,
And call them blest.

—P. PEARSE, 'The Mother'

“ Lord, I offer everything Thou askest for Ireland's resurrection. It is Thy will. Accept our willing sacrifice for our people. May we in dying, bring glory to Thy Name and honour to our country that has always been faithful to Thee. God save Ireland, God save, bless and guard the Irish Republic, to live and flourish, and be a model Government of truth and justice to all Nations: May the liberty of the Irish people shine with Thee, O my God, for ever and ever.
Amen.—From Terence McSwiney's last prayer

O Immense Passion ! O Profound Wounds !
O Profusion of Blood ! O Sweetness above all Sweetness ! O Most Bitter Death grant them eternal rest. Amen.—400 days' In dulgence.
