

CUSTOM HOUSE

On May 25th., 1921, Dublin Custom House was sacked and burned to the ground on the specific instructions of Dáil Eireann, and quoting "An tOglach", the Official Army journal of July, 1921; "symbolised the final collapse of English Civil administration in this country".

1921 — 1977

— LEST WE FORGET —

— — Roll of Honour — —

Capt. Paddy O'Reilly

(Q.M., 2nd. Batt.)

Lt. Stephen O'Reilly

(Asst. Adj. 2nd. Batt.)

Vol. Ned Dorrins

Vol. Sean Doyle

Vol. Dan Head

2nd. Batt. Dublin Brigade, I.R.A.

All typical examples of the young men of our race, who had for their watchword "Ireland for the Irish". To all of us those lads were the very embodiment of Ireland's passionate protest against English rule, and it is in this character that we best love to contemplate them.

A DIA SAOR EIRE