

Of your Charity

Pray for the Souls of

William O'Meara Allen, aged 19 years,
William Gould, aged 30 years,
Michael Larkin, aged 38 years,

The three unfortunate men who were executed at the New Bailey, Salford, on Saturday, Nov. 23rd, 1867.

Their profound love of "poor old Ireland" and the Fenian cause induced them to attack the police van in Hyde-road, Manchester, on the 18th September, and release Colonel Kelly and Captain Deasay from Custody. They were tried by Special Commission, and sentenced to death on Friday, November 1st. "Have pity on them, have pity on them, at least you their friends, for the hand of the Lord hath touched them."

"All their sorrows now are ended,
All their sufferings now are o'er."

May they rest in peace! Amen. God bless poor old Ireland.