Fold her, O Jesus, in Thy arms,
And let her henceforth be,
A messenger of love between
Our human hearts and thee.

Just when our hopes were brightest,
In the midst of your happiest days,
The life you planned was shortened,
By life's mysterious ways.

Not gone from Daddy's memory,
Not gone from Mammy's love,
But gone to shine with Jesus
In His beautiful home above.

Our Lady wished a pretty flower,
To lay at Jesus feet,
Her choice was of the fairest,
A lily pure and sweet.

She gazed amid God's flock,
And stooped to pick the best,
Dear Anne was the chosen one,
With Jesus now she rests.

At Heaven's gate she will be waiting,
With that same sweet loving smile,
For she is only gone before us,
Just a little while.

O God when we are lonely,
And wonder why she's gone,
Forgive us for our heartache,
And help us carry on.
