May He Rest In Peace

You've just walked on ahead of me.
And I've got to understand,
You must release the ones you love,
And let go of their hand.
I try and cope the best I can,
But I'm missing you so much.
If I could only see you,
And once more feel your touch.
Yes, you've just walked ahead of me,
Don't worry, I'll be fine.
But now and then I swear I feel,
Your hand slip into mine.

Daddy

You were one of life's true greats, a man greater than any ever known. You had a heart of gold and a smile to match. You always had time to help others, a true gentleman. You touched the lives of so many people and you were loved and adored by all who knew you. You were a man of great wisdom, a loving, caring strong man and you dedicated your life to us, teaching us all that you knew and bringing joy, laughter and happiness to our lives every day. You were the best husband and father anyone could ever imagine, a true family man at heart. We spent every minute we could together as a family, creating so many wonderful memories we will cherish forever. You were God's gift to us, an angel on this earth and although we did not get to keep you long, we will treasure the years we spent together forever. Not a day goes by when we don't long to have you here, but we are so proud and so grateful to have had such a special daddy who was truly perfect in every single way. Though we are heartbroken and our loss is so hard to bear, we carry on in the hope that each day we become a little more like you,
Our guardian angel, our hero, our daddy.
