

FRANCIS X. FLOOD

1ST LIEUT A.S.U., (DUBLIN BRIGADE, I.R.A.)

Who died for Ireland, March 14th 1921.

[The Negative of this Photograph (the official British photograph taken in Mountjoy before his execution) was found in Dublin Castle after its evacuation by the Black and Tans. The signature is not that of Francis Flood, and must have been written for identification purposes by the official British photographer.]