

In Memoriam

LEO DOWLING,
SYLVESTER HEANEY,
LAURENCE SHEEHY,
ANTHONY O'REILLY,

and

TERENCE BRADY

who were executed and proudly offered up their lives for Ireland,

at Portobello,

January 8, 1923.

R. I. P.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on their souls.

The mills of God grind slowly,
But they grind exceeding small,
Some day the right shall triumph,
And things accurst shall fall.
When slaves and knaves and tyrants

In oblivion's wrap are rolled,
The names of Ireland's martyrs Shall shine like burnished gold!
