May He Rest In Peace

*They say there is a reason,
They say that time will heal,
But neither time nor reason,
Will change the way we feel.*

What he suffered he told but few,
He did not deserve what he went through,
Tired and weary he made no fuss,
But tried so hard to stay with us.

+

We sat beside your bedside,
Our hearts were crushed and sore;
We did our duty to the end,
Till we could do no more.

+

It was a sudden parting,
Too bitter to forget,
Those who loved you dearly,
Are the one's who can't forget.

+

The blow was hard, the shock severe,
To part with one we loved so dear;
Our loss is great we'll not complain,
But trust in God to meet again.

+

In a near and silent graveyard,
Where the trees their branches wave,
Sleeps a kind and loving son and brother,
In his cold and lonely grave.

+

He bade no-one a last farewell,
He raised his hand to none:
His spirit flew before we knew,
That he from us had gone.
