

All I ask is that you will remember me at Mass and Holy Communion.

— R. I. P. —

Oh! you whom I have loved so much on earth, pray for me and live in such a manner that we may be re-united for ever in a Blessed Eternity. — St. Bonaventure.

What he suffered he told but few,
He did not deserve what he went through,
Tired and weary he made no fuss,
But tried so hard to stay with us.

They think that they have pacified
Ireland,

They think that they have purchased half of us and intimidated the other half.

They think that they have forseen everything and think that they provided against everything

But the fools, the fools, the fools!
they have left us our Fenian dead,
And while Ireland holds these graves,

Ireland unfree shall never be at peace

Two tired eyes are sleeping, Two willing hands are still;
The one who worked so hard for us,
Is resting at God's Will.
