"A Mhuire Cheanúil
Bí-se in aice leis
Tóg a anam dílis Go caoin fé do thearmann."

All I ask of you is that wherever you may be you will remember me at Holy Communion and at the foot of the Altar.

—St. Monica

We did not see you close your eyes
We did not see you die
All we knew was that you were gone
Without a last goodbye
It was a sudden parting Too bitter to forget Only those who loved you Are the ones who will never forget
The blow was hard the shock severe
To part with one we loved so dear
Our loss is great we'll not complain
But trust in God to we meet again
The happy hours we once enjoyed How sweet their memory still But death has left a vacant place
This world can never fill.
